Affiliated with Eastern Michigan University's Bruce T. Halle Library

Volume 39, Number 4, Winter 2013

As a follow-up to the release of the call for breakout session proposals for LOEX 2014 in Grand Rapids, MI (<http://www.loexconference.org/breakoutproposals.html>) — consider submitting yours today!), now is a good time to revisit & wrap-up the most recent conference: LOEX 2013 in Nashville, TN.

It took quite a bit of time to plan the conference, as Nashville is a very in-demand conference city for groups of all shapes and sizes from around the world. But through the hard work of a great local team of librarians led by conference co-chairs Ramona Romero and Lee Ann Lannom from Vanderbilt, we were able to have a successful and fun conference.

For this issue of the Quarterly, we are once again providing not just a summary conference report of a number of breakout sessions and the very informative (and entertaining) plenaries by Barbara Fister and David Owens, but also three full conference proceedings papers for an additional in-depth sample of what was presented.

Enjoy this issue of the Quarterly as we look back at LOEX 2013, while we also looking forward to some great proposals, and an overall rewarding conference experience, for LOEX 2014 in Grand Rapids.
