Two Sessions Remain for EMU Baseball Hitting Academy

The hitting academy is open to any and all entrants ages 8-18

3/7/2014 2:12:00 PM

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) -- There is still time to sign up for the two remaining sessions of the Eastern Michigan University Baseball Hitting Academy. The sessions will take place on Tuesday from March until the middle of May. The hitting academy will take place in Bowen Field House and is open to any and all entrants ages 8-18.

EMU Assistant Baseball Coach Eric Peterson will be leading instruction for hitters along with other EMU players for the hitting academy taking place through the end of winter to the start of spring. Advanced professional instruction will be given. The hitting academy will consist of cage work and drills with an extensive number of repetitions each evening. Each session consists of four different days of instruction, once per week on the same day of each week. The hitting academy will take place in Bowen Field House and is open to any and all entrants ages 8-18.

Cost per session of the hitting academy is $125. Click here for the online registration form.
