Football Braves the Ypsilanti Elements

Eagles continue their winter workouts

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) – The Eastern Michigan University football team, under the direction of first-year Head Coach Chris Creighton, continued their off-season workout routines by braving the elements inside Rynearson Stadium. With the field still covered in snow, the Eagles thrived under the notion of playing anytime and anywhere.

EMU returns to the turf for its first spring practice Tuesday, March 11, at 3:30 p.m. The session kicks off a string of 15 practice dates during a five-week period that culminates with the program's annual spring football game. During the spring practice period, the Eagles will be on the field each Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.
