LA QUINTA, Calif. (EMUEagles.com) – Former Eastern Michigan University men's golfer Cam Burke completed the Web.com Tour Qualifying Tournament at the PGA West Stadium Course, Dec. 12 – Dec. 17. The former Eagle shot a six-round total of 416 (67-72-67-69-69-72) to tie for 22nd and receive a 2014 Web.com Tour membership.

Burke's 16-under total on the par 72 layout through six rounds was highlighted by a first and second round 67. The Badin, Ontario native used six birdies and 11 pars in the first round and seven birdies in the third round to notch to five-under par rounds. Burke also shot a pair of 69s, including a bogey free round five to help secure his sport in the top-25 of the tournament.

Burke will attend an orientation meeting later this year to find out how many events he will be eligible to participate in, although it has been reported that all players finishing 11th through 45th will be guaranteed status for the first eight events of the 2014 season.
