SPECIAL NOTICES:

2016 MARTIN LUTHER KING DAY CELEBRATION – CALL FOR PROPOSALS: EMU's Martin Luther King Jr. Day Planning Committee invites proposals for academic sessions to be offered as part of the 2016 MLK Day Celebration, to be held on Monday, January 18, 2016.

This year, the theme is "And Justice For All?" The Pledge of Allegiance ends with "one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all." How do we, as a society, come together to achieve the ideal behind this pledge? Do we, as a nation, believe justice for all can be achieved? Reverend, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. did believe and he marched a nation forward towards that ideal.

The session format can be interactive, panel or a presentation of research. Proposals are due by midnight on Thursday, Dec. 3, 2015 in electronic format. Please find the application and directions for submission by visiting clicking the MLK Proposal Submission. The Committee's hope is that the events and discussions from this 2016 MLK Celebration will encourage each of us to pick up Dr. King's charge and galvanize us to take action for change.
