

Daily Audio Tape Service
NEWSLINE 487-2460
SPORTSLINE 487-3279

Vol. 27 No. 25 Feb. 9, 1982

U.S. REPRESENTATIVE SHIRLEY CHISHOLM TO LECTURE FEB. 18 IN PEASE

Shirley Chisholm, U.S. Representative and America's first black congresswoman, will lecture on campus Thursday, Feb. 18 at 8 p.m. in Pease Auditorium.

Chisholm, the first black woman to seek the nomination for the presidency from a major political party, is listed on Gallup Poll's list of the ten most admired women in the world. She is a member of the Congressional Black Caucus and the House Education and Labor Committee.

Chisholm is the author of her autobiography "Unbought and Unbossed" and "The Good Fight," a book which describes her campaign for the presidency.

Tickets for her lecture are $3.50 for the general public; $2.50 for students. A certified interpreter will sign the lecture for the hearing impaired.

Tickets are available in the Office of Campus Life, 117 Goodison Hall. Call 487-3045 for more information.

NOMINATIONS FOR FACULTY AWARDS ARE DUE BY MARCH 5

A committee has been established to collect nominations and review candidates for the University's Distinguished Faculty Awards for teaching, research and publication, and University service.

Nominating forms are available for those who wish to nominate faculty and may be obtained from the office of any college dean, Office of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, Office of Campus Life and the Student Government Office.

The deadline for nominations is Friday, March 5. Please forward nominations to the Office of Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, 146 Pierce Hall. Materials supporting nominations are due in the Provost's Office by March 13.

PARIS AND BURGUNDY ARE SUBJECTS OF LUNCHTIME SLIDE SHOW

Fred Blum, assistant humanities librarian, will show slides of Paris and Burgundy Friday, Feb. 12 at noon in Room 120 of the Library.

The slide show is free. Bring a lunch.

The deadline for the Feb. 16 issue of Faculty Staff News is 5 p.m., Feb. 10.

WORLD WAR II DOCUMENTARY IS SECOND FILM IN ANTI-WAR SERIES

John Huston's World War II documentary "Let There Be Light" is the second film in a series offered by the Washtenaw County Committee Against Registration and the Draft and will be shown Wednesday, Feb. 10 at noon in Room 401 of Pray-Harrold.

Bring a lunch. Call 485-8347 for more information.

PRESIDENT PORTER APPOINTED TO ENERGY AWARENESS COMMITTEE

President John W. Porter has been appointed by Governor William G. Milliken to serve as a member of the Energy Awareness Advisory Committee.

Porter's appointment was effective Jan. 12. He succeeds Dr. William Yankee of Traverse City.

INTERLOCHEN CHOIR AND CHORALE WILL PERFORM FEB. 9

Works ranging from P.D.Q. Bach's humorous "The Art of the Ground Round" to William L. Dawson's religious "Ezekiel Saw De Wheel" will be performed by the 63-voice Choir and Chorale from the Interlochen Arts Academy Tuesday, Feb. 9 at 8 p.m. in Pease Auditorium.

The performance is part of the group's four-day Michigan tour sponsored by the Michigan Council for the Arts.

Included on the choral group's repertoire for the Michigan tour are works by Haydn, Mozart, Wagner, Poulenc, Brahms and Puerling. Works for the EMU program have yet to be announced.

The concert is free and open to the public. Pease Auditorium will open at 7:30 p.m. for early concertgoers.

NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION CONTINUES EQUIPMENT PROGRAM

The National Science Foundation is continuing its Two-Year and Four-Year College Research Instrumentation Programs, which provide grants to colleges and universities which award few, or no, doctoral degrees.

(Continued)

The grants will be used to purchase equipment needed to enable science faculty to perform quality research. Proposals will be accepted at any time. The maximum request is $35,000.

For further information, contact Richard Howard, Office of Research Development, at 7-3090.

STUDENTS OFFER FREE INCOME TAX CLINIC

A free income tax clinic for low income and elderly residents of the Ypsilanti-Ann Arbor area is being offered by the Accounting Club and Beta Alpha Psi honorary accounting fraternity through April 6.

The clinic, located on the second floor of Goodison Hall in the Student Files Room, is open from noon to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday with Saturday hours available by appointment. The clinic is staffed by junior and senior accounting majors in the College of Business.

Area residents who need help filing their income tax forms should bring W-2 forms, bank statements, dividend sheets and itemized lists with them when they come to the clinic.

For further information call 487-3117.

ART NOUVEAU IS TOPIC OF ART LECTURE

Art Nouveau will be the topic for discussion in an art lecture by Michael Farrell, adjunct curator of education at the Detroit Institute of Arts, Wednesday, Feb. 17 at 8 p.m. in Room 143 of Sill Hall.

The lecture, sponsored by the Art Department, is being offered in conjunction with the Art Institute's Statewide Services Lecture Program.

Farrell's lecture will focus on the international style in architecture, sculpture, painting and particularly the decorative arts which was a summation of and a reaction against the styles and modes of late 19th century taste. Farrell will also explore how it became a prophecy of the modern age.

Farrell's lecture is free and open to the public.

FORENSICS TEAM FINISHES FOURTH AT TOLEDO TOURNAMENT

EMU's Forensics Team placed fourth at the Glass City Invitational Tournament hosted by the University of Toledo Jan. 30.

The 10 member squad competed against 20 other colleges and universities from throughout the Midwest and East. Clarion College from Pennsylvania won the contest.

OPENINGS

The Personnel Office announces the following vacancies:

Clerical/Secretarial (Minimum Bi-weekly Rate)

CS/03 - $373.38 - Senior Clerk - Office of Financial Aid. (Two positions, 45 WPM typing, computer data entry experience required.)

CS/05 - $446.18 - Senior Secretary - Center for Community Education. (Some accounting knowledge and skills necessary.)

Final date for the acceptance of internal applications for the above positions is Feb. 16, 1982.

Administrative/Professional/Technical

AP-07 - $618.63 - $849.73 - Assistant Coach, Football - Intercollegiate Athletics - Completed applications are requested by Feb. 24, 1982; however the search shall remain open until the position is filled.

AP-08 - $703.47 - $974.56 - Assistant Head Coach, Football - Intercollegiate Athletics - Applications must be received in the Personnel Office or Promotional Openings Application forms received in Intercollegiate Athletics by 5 p.m., Feb. 18, 1982.

Internal applicants for the above clerical/secretarial and administrative/professional/technical positions should submit a Promotional Openings Application form to the department in which the vacancy exists.

(An affirmative action/equal opportunity employer and educational institution.)

COUNSELING GROUPS WILL BE OFFERED AT SNOW HEALTH CENTER

The Counseling Service in the Health Center will offer three free counseling groups for students beginning in February on the top floor of the Health Center.

All of the group sessions will be led by professional staff members.

The three sessions include a group that examines the stresses and strains of adult returning students which begins Tuesday, Feb. 16 from 3 to 5 p.m.; a professional competency support group which begins Thursday, Feb. 18 from noon to 1:30 p.m.; and an interpersonal reaction group which begins Wednesday, Feb. 17 from 3 to 4:30 p.m.

Each of the sessions continues for six weeks.

To register for one of the groups, call 487-1118.