

PREFACE

The 41th annual LOEX conference was in Music City, as LOEX made its first ever foray into Tennessee. Close to 400 librarians met at the Sheraton Nashville Downtown hotel to learn from the colleagues about different aspects of successful instruction and information programs

To pull off a successful conference in the middle of a booming, rapidly-changing city we needed a top-notch team, so I would like to thank all the members of the LOEX 2013 committee, starting with co-chairs Lee Ann Lannom and Ramona Romero of Vanderbilt University. They were backed by committee members Melinda Brown (Vanderbilt University), Jenny Mills and Judy Williams (Belmont University) and Jason Vance and Kristen West (Middle Tennessee State University). Many thank yous to them, and anyone else who volunteered their time to contribute to the success of the conference.

Lastly, thank you to all the presenters who contributed their work and energy to the conference. It is always inspiring to learn what they are doing. Please enjoy reading this set of proceedings from the 41st annual LOEX Conference: Creating an Information Literacy Playlist.

Brad Sietz, LOEX Director