Fact:

The Seeing Eye, Inc. (TSE) is a guide dog school located in Morristown, NJ. It was founded in 1929 as the first guide dog school in the country. The dogs are trained to assist their owners and provide them with a means to be independent and to be able to get about as pedestrians in their communities without other assistance.

Dorothy Harrison Eustis, was an American dog breeder and trainer who was experimenting with the idea of German Shepherds to be used as working dogs. She visited a school that was training German Shepherds to lead blinded WWI veterans. Fascinated by what she had seen, she wrote an article entitled, "The All Seeing Eye", about the school, which appeared in the November 5, 1927 edition of The Saturday Evening Post. Shortly thereafter, she was contacted by a blind man from Tenn., Morris Frank, who enlisted her to train a dog for his use. This effort eventually evolved into the Seeing Eye organization in Switzerland and America. After 80 years of providing Independence and Dignity, The Seeing Eye remains the best known guide dog school in the world.
