

LOEX Quarterly

Affiliated with Eastern Michigan University's Bruce T. Halle Library

Volume 31, Number 4

News from the LOEX Office

As winter slowly gives way to spring, the 33rd annual LOEX conference, Discover, Connect, Engage: Creative Integration of Information Literacy, is fast approaching. Hosted by University of Louisville Libraries, the conference offers a vast assemblage of presentations which approach information literacy and library instruction from a variety of new and innovative positions. Additionally, keynote speakers Elizabeth O. Hutchins and Barbara MacAdam will bring stimulating concepts to the table to get each day off to a fresh start. For the latest information about the LOEX conference program, see:

<http://library.louisville.edu/loex2005/program.htm>

The programming committee, headed by Anna Marie Johnson, have planned the event with a surplus of calmness and organization. I offer endless gratitude for their leadership. They have put together a fine conference.

Another important information literacy conference is on the horizon: WILU, the 34th annual Workshop on Instruction in Library Use. It will be held on the campus of the University of Guelph in Guelph, Ontario from May 18-20. The conference program can be viewed at:

<http://www.lib.uoguelph.ca/wilu/program.html>

Enjoy this season of conferences,

Theresa Valko
Director

What's Inside

Featured Web Site: 2
MERLOT
Randal Baier

TechMatters: 4
Further Adventures in the Googleverse: Exploring the Google Labs
Krista Graham

Choosing Sources in the 6
Library of Babel
Barbara Fister

Survey Research on Little or No 8
Budget: Practical Tips and Advice for Using the Internet to Conduct Surveys
Colleen Boff
Kristin Johnson

Ross' Rave: 12
Ga-ga over Google
Ross LaBaugh