Anyone with an EMU ID can have the ticket fee waived at a ticket office. No online waivers. Live presentations will take place Friday, March 15 at Eastern Michigan University's Quirk Theatre. At TEDx events, live presenters and performers spark deep conversation and connections.

TEDx events are fully planned and coordinated independently on a community-by-community basis. Each TEDx event's content and design are unique and developed independently, but all events have several common features - TED's celebrated format: A suite of short, carefully prepared talks, demonstrations and performances on a wide range of subjects to foster learning, inspiration and wonder - and to provoke conversations that matter. For more information visit TEDxEMU.com, find them on Facebook at fb.me/TEDxEMU or follow them @OfficialTEDxEMU.

On this day...

On this day in 2002 - Two columns of light called the Tribute in Light were pointed skyward from ground zero in New York as a temporary memorial to the victims of the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001.

Quote:

"There comes a time when you've got to say, "Let's get off our asses and go ..." I have always found that if I move with 75 percent or more of the facts I usually never regret it. It's the guys who wait to have everything perfect that drive you crazy." - Lee Iacocca

Fact:

U.S. President Howard Taft became the first U.S. President to be buried in the National Cemetery in Arlington, VA. Taft died on March 8, and was buried three days later on March 11, 1930 at Arlington National Cemetery. James Earle Fraser sculpted his grave marker out of Stony Creek granite. Taft is one of two presidents buried at Arlington National Cemetery, and is one of four Chief Justices buried there. Taft was the only Chief Justice to have had a state funeral.
