WEMU NEEDS VOLUNTEERS FOR SPRING PLEDGE DRIVE: WEMU needs volunteers to answer phones and take pledges during their Spring On-Air Pledge Drive, Thursday, April 4 through Thursday, April 11, in the WEMU studios located on the fourth floor of King Hall. Shifts are a minimum of two hours and run between 6 a.m. to 7 p.m. on weekdays, 6 a.m. to 11 p.m. on Saturday, and 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Sunday. Lots of great food and beverages donated from area restaurants. Students are eligible for community service credit. Sign up by phone at 487-2229 or online at www.wemu.org.

TRAINING SESSIONS ON PRIVACY ISSUES: To ensure that Eastern and its faculty and staff are in compliance/legal and regulatory requirement related to privacy issues, a new training session has been developed by the Office of Business and Finance. The privacy training, which is mandatory for all faculty and staff, is offered on several different dates and times in an effort to accommodate schedules, and will also be offered in an online format. Faculty and staff can attend any of the sessions listed below:

Thursday, March 28, 1 - 2 p.m., Halle Auditorium

Monday, April 8, 11 - Noon, Halle Auditorium

Based on these sessions, a program will be developed for the on-line HR system called Success Factors. If you would like to arrange a training session for your department, please contact Margaret Tsilis at 487-3328. Participation is mandatory to attend one of the training sessions or to complete on-line (once developed). Additional dates will be announced. If you have any questions regarding privacy training, contact Steve LaChance at 487-1490 or Andrea Jaeckel at 487-3328.

REQUIRED SAFETY AWARENESS, HAZARD COMMUNICATION TRAINING: Environmental Health and Safety (EHS) will be conducting safety awareness & hazard communication training sessions. This is required for all EMU employees who have not yet taken this training and for those who may need a refresher. It is open to all employees and student employees, and provides information on the safety systems, practices and expectations to maintain a safe campus community. The training session for Friday, April 12 is full but the following dates are still open:

Friday, May 10, 1- 2:30 p.m., in Room 302, Halle Library

Friday, June 14, 1- 2:30 p.m., in Room 302, Halle Library

To register, contact EHS at 487-0794 or email at environmental\_health\_safety@emich.edu.

LUNCH AND LEARN SESSION: Human Resources is pleased to offer "Interviewing Skills and EMU Job Searching" today, March 27, 12 - 2 p.m., in the HR Training Suite. Learn interviewing techniques and guidelines for making a positive impression during your next interview. This session will help attendees learn to control anxiety during the interview process. The session will also touch on social media tools to stay up-to-date and informed on open EMU positions. Go to Lunch and Learn Registration to register using Survey Monkey.

WOMEN'S SOFTBALL TAKES ON OAKLAND: The Women's softball team will take on Oakland University today, March 27, 3 p.m., at Varsity Field. For the complete schedule, go to 2013 Women's Softball schedule.

SUCCESS FOR WOMEN IN GRADUATE SCHOOL: Get helpful answers to confusing questions about graduate school during the event tonight, March 27, 5:30 p.m. - 7:30 p.m., in Room 300, Halle Library. This discussion hopes to demystify and support the possibility of graduate school for current EMU undergraduate students and women in the surrounding community. It will also try to help answer the confusing question current female graduate students might ask themselves "What's next?"

MOVIE - "IMAGES FROM DETROIT'S CASS CORRIDOR": Directed by Shaun Bangert and Kathryn Brackett Luchs, the movie "Images from Detroit's Cass Corridor," will be shown tonight, March 27, at 5:30 p.m., in the Halle Library Auditorium. In this film, artists share their personal visions by being in geographical proximity to one another, making works that mark an era in Detroit's history that is now regarded as being highly significant. During the late 1960s and through the 1970s, some artists living in Detroit explored alternative, inventive and personal approaches to making art. Original music by Mick Vranich accompanies this illuminating documentary. For more information, contact Greg Tom at gtom@emich.edu or Julie Myers at jmyers@emich.edu.

SUBMISSIONS TO EMU TODAY: Please note, EMU TODAY is a internal daily e-blast sent to faculty and staff only. To submit an announcement or post an event, please forward your entry electronically to emu\_today@emich.edu. Please be sure to format your entry with a title and include a description of the event, where the event will be held (room and building), the date and time, and a contact name, phone number and/or e-mail address. ### Lectures and Meetings

GEOSPATIAL CAREERS - JOIN THE CEOSPATIAL REVOLUTION: Eastern is pleased to welcome guest speaker, Michael Healander, Emerging Technology Manager at Geographic Information Services, Inc., on Thursday, March 28, from 4:50 - 5:25 p.m., Strong Hall Auditorium.

The world we think of is changing rapidly; augmented reality, 3D touch-free motion control, indoor navigation, unmanned aerial vehicles (UAV), cloud computing and mobile devices are transformative technologies that are taking advantage of locational data that exists everywhere. In this dynamic landscape, tremendous opportunities exist in the traditional Business-to-Business market and in consumer markets. Healander's talk will provide participants with a lightning style presentation of location based projects, solutions, applications and emerging technologies in multiple markets that will provide students with employment ideas for those who understand geospatial technology. This event is free and open to the campus community. For questions, contact Michael Dueweke at 487-8487 or email at mdueweke@emich.edu.

CORNELL UNIVERSITY PROFESSOR TO SPEAK ON SUSTAINABLE TECHNOLOGIES AND INNOVATION:

Professor Stuart Hart of Cornell University will speak on "Sustainable Technologies and Innovation" on Thursday, April 4, 6:30 p.m. - 8 p.m., in Room 1, Sill Hall. Dr. Hart is an internationally recognized speaker who has delivered hundreds of keynote addresses on the topic of sustainable business around the world. He has authored or edited seven books, and his best-selling book, Capitalism at the Crossroads, was selected by Cambridge University as one of the 50 top books on sustainability of all-time. His 1995 article, "A Natural Resource-Based View of the Firm," is the most highly cited academic work in the field of sustainable enterprise. In addition, he wrote the seminal article, "Beyond Greening: Strategies for a Sustainable World," which won the McKinsey Award for Best Article in the Harvard Business Review in 1997, and helped launch the movement for corporate sustainability. LBC credit approved. This event is free and open to the public.

Activities and Events

GRADUATE TO THE NEXT LEVEL: A graduate degree is an important stepping stone to a promotion or career advancement in many fields and you can get many of your questions answered at EMU's Graduate Open House on Saturday, April 6, from 10 a.m. to noon, in the Student Center Ballroom. Apply for admission. Your application fee will be waived for the first graduate program you apply to. Learn about graduate assistantships and doctoral fellowships. Register to win three free tuition credits. Three winners will each receive this $1,500 award. Speak with a college representative and receive general information about the programs. Meet with faculty members from several doctoral and cohort programs. Visit the Graduate Open House homepage, for more information.

THE SECOND CITY IMPROVISATION COMEDY GROUP COMING TO EMU: The departments of Risk Management and Diversity & Affirmative Action are hosting the event "How to Manage and Respond to Bullying, Generational Differences and Violence in the Workplace" on Tuesday, April 9, from 9 - 11:30 a.m., in Room 201, Welch Hall. The workshop is presented by the highly acclaimed Second City Communications improvisation comedy group. This interactive, humorous session will help employees explore the behavioral side of these sensitive issues. Space is limited and pre-registration is required. Contact Carol Wilkins at cwilkins@emich.edu or 487-1055.

* DINE & DONATE FUNDRAISER FOR THE MAGIC PROGRAM: THE Academic Success Partnerships' Mentorship Access Guidance in College (MAGIC) Program will host a Dine to Donate fundraiser on Tuesday, April 9, 5 p.m. - 10 p.m., at the Tower Inn Cafe. Funds from the event will help support students on campus who have aged out of the foster care system. Tower Inn will donate 20% of the bill (less beverages) to the program for any patrons who present the bottom portion of the Dine & Donate Flyer.

MAGIC exists to increase the graduation rates among foster care alumni, encourage a successful transition into adulthood, and promote workforce readiness by providing life skills training, mentorship, housing stability, social enrichment, and financial literacy. Additional information about the MAGIC program is available online at www.emich.edu/magic or by calling 487-0899.

EXPLORE THE POWERHOUSES OF THE UNIVERSE AT THE PLANETARIUM: The EMU planetarium will feature the movie "Stars," Friday, April 12 and Friday, April 26, at 7 p.m., in the Mark Jefferson Science Complex. "Stars," narrated by actor Mark Hamill, is the Sudekum Planetarium's first original full-dome, digital production. Adventure Science Center collaborated with the National Space Centre in Leicester, England, to create this stunning 26-minute show exploring the powerhouses of the universe and our relationship with the night sky throughout history. Tickets are $5 and can be purchased online at EMU Tickets. For more on the movie, go to Stars Movie. Recommended age for the movie is 13 years and older. Following the movie, participants will get to enjoy a live demonstration of the current night sky locally. Space is limited. Contact Norbert Vance at nvance@emich.edu or Tom Kasper at tkasper@emich.edu for further details about the planetarium.

TRUEMU DAY AT EASTERN MARKET IN DOWNTOWN DETROIT: Shop with your TRUEMU friends or make new ones at Detroit's historic Eastern Market on Saturday, April 20. The day starts with a short presentation at 9 a.m. in Shed 5 off Alfred Street. After the presentation, receive a special "I LOVE EASTERN" recycled heavy duty grocery tote bag, which will provide you with discounts at a few selected Eastern Market businesses the rest of the day. TRUEMU students, faculty/staff and alumni and their friends and family are welcomed and encouraged to attend. For more information, contact Ted Coutilish at 487-2483 or tcoutili@emich.edu.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED TO HELP HURON RIVER WATERSHED COUNCIL: Do you care about the environment and what happens to the rivers and streams in Michigan? If so, please join the Huron River Watershed Council as they check the health of the river and streams during their Annual Spring Round-Up Event on Saturday, April 20, from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. or 10:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Bring a small team of your friends and family, or join others, for this unique activity. Help collect samples of the bugs and other creatures that live in our streams. Like canaries in a coal mine, these creatures tell us the health of our river and creeks. Trained volunteers will take you to two stream sites, where you help search through stones, leaves, and sediment. The amount of life in our fresh water is amazing. Volunteers will meet in Ann Arbor and then go to two sites. Children are welcome to attend with an adult. You must register by Wednesday, April 17. To register and for more information, go to www.hrwc.org/volunteer/roundup.

Would you like to become a leader/collector volunteer? Please visit www.hrwc.org/volunteer/adopt-a-stream-leader-and-collector-training for more information. Please contact Jason at jfrenzel@hrwc.org with questions.

Arts and Entertainment

FORD GALLERY SHOWCASES HONORS EXHIBITION: Each year, the Art Department awards over $30,000 in various scholarships to students on both a need and merit basis. The Honors Exhibition gives these talented students an opportunity to showcase their work. The Exhibit runs through Wednesday, April 3, in the Ford Gallery. Visit 2013 Honors Show for more information.

"JAZZ IS ALIVE!" BENEFIT CONCERT AND DANCE: Featuring The Couriers and the EMU Jazz Ensemble with guest drummer, Sean Dobbins. Come celebrate National Jazz Month on Saturday, April 6, 7 - 10:30 p.m., in the Student Center Ballroom. Join us for an evening of big band music and dancing, dance demonstrations and quality entertainment to honor the great jazz legends. Tickets are $35 and pre-registration is required by Tuesday, April 2. Call 487-4380 to register. This event is open to the public.

EMU THEATRE PRESENTS WEDDING BAND: A LOVE/HATE STORY IN BLACK AND WHITE: EMU Theatre is pleased to present "Wedding Band: A Love/Hate Story in Black and White" beginning Friday, April 5 to Sunday, April 14, at the Sponberg Theatre, in the Quirk Dramatic Arts Building. Ticket prices are $15 regular admission, $12 for students and seniors, $9 for MAINSTAGE patrons, no further discounts apply. Tickets are available by phone at 487-2282 and in person at the Convocation Center, the Student Center ticket office or the Quirk Box Office. Go to Purchase Tickets Online or visit EMU Theatre for more information.

GRADUATE THESIS EXHIBITION: Born in Michigan, Adam Ostrowski's work has been shown both regionally and nationally. Though his aesthetic comes from an interest in decorative ornamentation, the content of his work revolves around body image and power in social and sexual relationships. The exhibition will showcase from Monday, April 8 to Friday, April 12 in the Ford Gallery. Visit Adam Ostrowski Exhibition for more information.

* GRADUATE THESIS EXHIBITION AT FORD GALLERY: The works of Meghna Chauhan and Ruth Henkel will be on display from Monday, April 15 to Friday, April 19 in the Ford Gallery. Chauhan's artwork questions the presence or absence of an individual's physical, emotional, and spiritual self in relationships and socio-cultural traditions. A myriad of ever-present sub-conscious thoughts and memories inspire her art.

Ruth Henkel is a contemporary figurative painter focusing on modern portraiture. Having spent many years training and working in San Francisco, she now resides in Ann Arbor, Mi. She strives for a balance between spontaneity in her paint handling and accuracy in rendering the form. Visit Chauhan/Henkel Exhibition for more information.

* CAPSTONE CLASS - SENIOR THESIS SHOW: This exhibition marks the highlight exhibition from the Capstone class that serves as the professional practice class under EMU's new BFA Curricula. The Exhibition show will be Wednesday, April 17 to Wednesday, April 24, in the Student Gallery at the Student Center. There will be a reception on Monday, April 22 from 4 - 7 p.m.
