SIX KEY POSITIONS FILLED IN UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

At its regular monthly meeting June 18, the EMU Board of Regents approved appointments to six key administrative posts.

- Dr. Carolyn D. Spatta, an independent consultant in Washington, D.C., and former president of a small women's college in Iran, was appointed vice president for administration. She will assume her post on or about July 15.

-Dr. Ronald W. Collins, head of the EMU Chemistry Department, was appointed associate vice president for academic affairs. Dr. Clark Spike, who had filled the position on an interim basis, will return to teaching in the Chemistry Department. Collins' appointment is effective July 1.

- Dr. Suzanne M. Fleming, academic vice president at Marygrove College, was appointed assistant vice president for academic affairs. A member of the Order of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, Fleming earned advanced degrees in chemistry. Her appointment is effective on or about July 14.

- Dr. W. Scott Westerman, acting dean of the College of Education and head of the Department of Curriculum and Instruction, was named permanent dean of the college. A former superintendent of schools, Westerman's appointment is effective July 1.

- Dr. Peter A. Dual, assistant to the dean and director of the Center for Continuing Education of Public Health Professionals at the University of Michigan Graduate School of Public Health, was appointed dean of the College of Human Services. His appointment is effective on or about Aug. 4.

- Morell D. Boone, dean of learning resources at the University of Bridgeport in Bridgeport, Conn., was appointed director of the Center of Educational Resources. Boone's appointment is effective Sept. 1.

DIVISION OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS REORGANIZED

EMU President John W. Porter announced the reorganization of the Division of University Relations at the Board of Regents meeting June 18. John C. Fountain, executive director of Information Services, will become associate vice president for university relations. Nancy J. Mida, coordinator of promotions and production, will become director of University Publications and Kathleen D. Tinney, news editor, will become director of Information Services. The reorganization will become effective July 1.

1980-81 GENERAL FUND AND AUXILIARY FUND BUDGETS APPROVED BY REGENTS

The EMU Board of Regents approved the 1980-81 General Fund and Auxiliary Fund budgets at its regular monthly meeting June 18. The General Fund budget totals $53.6 million, an increase of 10 percent from the 1979-80 budget. The state appropriation for General Fund operations is expected to increase 5.9 percent from last year's appropriations. The Auxiliary Fund budget, which supports such University operations as apartments, housing, food services, McKenny Union, University Publications and the Hoyt Conference Center, totals $13.5 million, an increase of 16.7 percent from 1979-80.

SALE OF BONDS FOR RECREATIONAL/INTRAMURAL BUILDING APPROVED

The Board of Regents approved the issuance and sale of bonds worth $16 million to finance the construction of a recreational/intramural building on campus. In addition, $4.5 million in residence hall term loan refunding revenue bonds were approved for sale.

The deadline for the July 8 issue of FOCUS EMU is Tuesday, July 1, at 5 p.m.

REGENTS APPROVE FIRST TUITION INCREASE IN TWO YEARS

The first tuition increase in two years was approved by the Regents at their June 18 meeting. Undergraduate resident tuition increased 14.2 percent, based on 31 semester hours plus required fees. Specifically, undergraduate Michigan residents will pay $30 per credit hour instead of $26 and graduate students who are residents of Michigan will pay $42 per credit hour rather than $39. The increases will be effective beginning with the fall 1980 semester.

LABOR CONTRACT WITH PROFESSIONAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE EMPLOYEES APPROVED

The Regents approved a labor contract with United Auto Workers Local 1976 at their June 18 meeting. The agreement provides for a six percent salary increase for all bargaining unit employees on the University's active payroll as of June 18, retroactive to Jan. 1, 1980, and an additional six percent salary increase effective July 1, 1980. Other provisions include three paid Christmas/New Year's season days off, a dental insurance program and long-term disability insurance.

REGENTS APPROVE LABOR AGREEMENT WITH CAMPUS POLICE OFFICERS

A labor contract with the EMU Police Chapter of the Fraternal Order of Police, State Lodge of Michigan Labor Council, was approved by the Regents. The agreement covers nine police officers on campus. It includes a 5.1 percent salary increase retroactive to Aug. 15, 1979, a 5.9 percent salary increase retroactive to Jan. 1, 1980, and a 7.95 percent salary increase effective July 1, 1980. Other provisions include an increase in the minimum hire rate and three paid season days between Christmas and New Year's.
