Vol. 25 No. 36

Spring/Summer Supplement

May 13, 1980

Produced by the Office of Information Services for Eastern Michigan University Faculty and Staff

New Look for Spring/Summer

Our new look. Due to budget constraints, this is FOCUS EMU in its new spring/summer format. We'll still publish every other week and keep you up to date on happenings around campus. We'll continue to publish participation/publication items submitted by faculty and staff as space permits. Beginning the first week of classes in the fall, we'll be back to our old self of eight pages every week.

A Glimpse of the Past Offered in Tours, Lectures

Preservation Eastern, an EMU student organization, is sponsoring a walking tour of campus and three lectures by EMU professors in conjunction with National Preservation Week, May 11-17. The activities are free and open to everyone. The walking tours will be offered Friday and Saturday, May 16 and 17, beginning at 2 p.m. by the Water Tower. They'll last about an hour and refreshments and a slide presentation will follow. The speakers and their lectures are:

- Dr. Henry Aldridge, "Preserving Movie Palaces - the Michigan Theater: A Case Study," Tuesday, May 13, 7:30 p.m. at the Michigan Theater, Ann Arbor.

- A. P. Marshall, "Black History and Black Historic Sites in Ypsilanti," Friday, May 16, 7:30 p.m. at the Brown Chapel, AME Church, 401 S. Adam St., Ypsilanti.

- Dr. Marshall McLennan, "Historic Huron River: Stream of Energy," Thursday, May 15, 7:30 p.m. in Room 200, Strong Hall.

Go Fly a Kite — on Saturday

Keep your eye on the sky Saturday, May 17 (rain date, May 18), when WEMU-89fm launches its first "Come Fly a Kite Day" from noon to 4 p.m. at Ryneerson Stadium. The activities include: noon, kite demonstration, bring own string and kite tail; 1 p.m., longest flying kite contest, junior contest (10 and under) and senior contest (65 and over); 2 p.m., best looking home-made kite contest; 2:30 p.m., contest between WEMU and WJZZ. Prizes will be awarded and clowns and musical entertainment will be provided. Everyone is welcome.

Book Included in Vice Presidential Library

Dr. Richard Abbott, professor of history at EMU, has had a copy of his book "Cobbler in Congress: Life of Henry Wilson 1812 - 1875" included in a library collection about U.S. vice presidents organized by Joan Mondale, wife of Vice President Walter Mondale. Abbott attended the library dedication ceremonies in Washington, D. C. May 8.

Using Newspapers in the Classroom Topic of Course

A two-credit graduate course for elementary and secondary school teachers or prospective teachers titled "The Newspaper in the Classroom" will be offered this summer in cooperation with The Detroit News. For further information call the Office of Continuing Education at 487-0442.

The deadline for the May 27 issue of FOCUS EMU is 5 p.m., Monday, May 19.

Congratulations to Our Winning Team

Congratulations are in order for the EMU Forensics Team which captured its fifth consecutive national title at the National Forensics Association tournament April 28 at the University of Montevallo, Montevallo, Ala.

Junior Jon Capecci won two individual national titles and also won first place in the Pentathlon competition, making him the top collegiate speaker in the nation. Some 800 students from throughout the U.S. competed in the tournament.

Advisor

The Academic Services Center urges students to keep the following important dates in mind for the spring/summer semesters:

May 8, the last day to drop a class; and the last day to declare pass/fail.

June 2, the last day for automatic withdrawals from individual classes.

June 18, the last day for late withdrawals and total withdrawals; and the last day to change the pass/fail option to a letter grade.
