TALK ON "THE MEANING OF (GAY) MARRIAGE": As part of the 2013-2014 Philosophy Speaker Series, EMU welcomes John Corvino on Wednesday, September 25, 5:30 - 7 p.m., in room 310A in the Student Center. In his talk, Corvino, a Wayne State University professor, and author of What's Wrong with Homosexuality? and co-author of Debating Same-Sex Marriage, will explain some of the philosophical debates surrounding the issue and critique the "new natural law" position, increasingly popular among social conservatives. With over a dozen states permitting same-sex marriage, several others considering it, and dozens of others banning it, the issue remains controversial. Yet it also invites some important questions--about the role of the state, the needs of children and the meaning of marriage itself. For questions, please contact Peter Higgin at 487-0419 or email at phiggin1@emich.edu.

BOARD OF REGENTS MEETING: The EMU Board of Regents will hold its October board meeting on Tuesday, October 1, at 1:30 p.m., in room 201, Welch Hall. Below is the schedule for the committee meetings. All meetings are in Welch Hall.

- Finance, Audit and Investment: 11:30 - 12:15 p.m., Room 201

For additional information, please visit the Board of Regents homepage or contact Vicki Reaume at 487-2410 or email vicki.reaume@emich.edu.

* AGING STUDIES PROGRAM PRESENTS ANNUAL FALL LECTURE: The Aging Studies Program will present their annual fall lecture on Wednesday, October 9, 4 - 6 p.m., in Ballroom B in the Student Center. This lecture will trace the evolution of approaches to dementia care as reflected in 1) changing philosophic orientations toward the care of elders with dementia and 2) scientific advancements in nursing and related fields over the past three decades. Major theories and models addressing care of individuals with dementia and management of associated behavioral issues will be reviewed with emphasis on the scientific evidence for them. Thoughts about emerging challenges and opportunities as they may affect the future of dementia care will also be offered. Presented by: Donna Algase, PhD, RN, Associate Dean of Research and Evaluation at the University of Toledo. The event is free. Please contact Aging Studies Program Director, Andrea Zakrajsek with any questions at 487-3220 or azakrajs@emich.edu.

THE NUTS AND BOLTS OF WRITING A WOMEN IN PHILANTHROPY GRANT: Do you have an idea as to how you might enhance your own EMU experiences, while at the same time benefiting the larger EMU community? Or, are you part of an organization that has a specific need at EMU or where EMU resources might be valuable to the larger community? WIP offers grants (up to $5,000) to enhance learning opportunities, create collaborative efforts, foster creativity and innovation, and improve communication among diverse groups within the EMU community.

In this workshop, we will briefly discuss the general principles of grant writing and then focus on your creating draft answers to the questions asked in the grant application. Time at the end of the workshop will be devoted to individual assistance. If you have not written a WIP grant, or you have been unsuccessful in obtaining a grant, this workshop is for you. STUDENTS, STAFF, and FACULTY are all urged to attend. The following sessions will be offered:

- Monday, September 30, 4 - 6 p.m., room 304 in the Student Center
- Tuesday, October 1, 4 – 6 p.m., room 302 in the Student Center

Activities and Events

NONPROFIT LEADERSHIP ALLIANCE WILL HOST OPEN HOUSE: The Nonprofit Leadership Alliance, a nation-wide Scholars Program that offers certification to students interested in becoming future nonprofit professionals, will hold an Open House on Wednesday, September 18, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., in room 332, in King Hall. Staff will be available to answer questions and help get you started on a certification to change the world. Contact Colleen at the NLA office at nonprofit@emich.edu or call 487-1612 with any questions. You can visit our website at www.emich.edu/nonprofit or stop by our office at 332 King Hall.

"ONE DIME AT A TIME": That's partly how students, faculty and staff at EMU managed to buy eight new Steinway pianos. Although the fundraising campaign originally began in 2008, it took off in 2012, thanks to a number of new donations. The piano students organized the grassroots campaign to raise funds. They sold T-shirts; volunteered to serve on EMU's Steinway board and made about $850 from bottle and can returns.

The pianos will be on display at a reception, Thursday, September 19, hosted by the Department of Music & Dance and the EMU Foundation. The 3 p.m. event will be held in the breezeway of the Alexander Building, and is free and open to the public. Seven pianos will initially be covered while the eighth one will be wheeled into the breezeway accompanied by a drum line. Piano students will then play the EMU Fight Song. For more information, call the Department of Music and Dance at 487-4380.

GET YOUR BIKE REGISTERED: The EMU Police Department will be tagging bicycles on Wednesday, September 18, 1 - 2:30 p.m., and on Tuesday, September 24, 4 - 5:30 p.m., at the Student Center (south entrance side near the bridge). The new bike registration program will aid recovery of property to the owners for lost or stolen bikes. There is NO COST for registering a bicycle and this free service is available to all EMU students, faculty and staff. The bicycle and owner information will be sent to BikeGuard, a bicycle registry that will be used as an aid by police officers and bike owners to identify and return stolen bicycles. This is a walk-up program and no appointment is necessary for this event. Bicycle registration is available year round at the EMU Police Department. For questions, please contact Officer Candace Dorsey, Crime Prevention Coordinator at 487-0987 or email cdorsey@emich.edu.

WELCOME RECEPTION TO HONOR SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS: The Aging Studies Program invites you to attend their fall 2013 Welcome Reception on Wednesday, September 18, 3 - 5 p.m., in room 374 (The Gathering Room) in Marshall. Help honor the 2013-2014 scholarship recipients, enjoy good fellowship and light refreshments. The gerontology faculty and alumni look forward to meeting you. The event is co-sponsored by the Gerontology Program Student Organization (GPSO). For more information, please call 487-3220 or email andrea.zakrajsek@emich.edu.

NATIVE AMERICAN RIGHTS AND THE CONSTITUTION TALK: Native Americans have certain "rights" not accorded other U.S. citizens and the U.S. government has powers over Native Americans that it does not have over other citizens. Please join us as we welcome keynote speaker Jace Weaver for his talk on "Native American Rights and the US Constitution," on Wednesday September 18, 5:30 - 8:30 p.m., in the Student Center Auditorium. The event is free and open to the public and is LBC approved. Co-sponsored by the Center for the Study of Equality and Human Rights, Division of Academic and Student Affairs, College of Arts and Sciences, Department of Teacher Education, and the Native American Student Organization. For more information or questions, please contact Kate Mehuron at 487-4348 or email at kmehuron@emich.edu.

GREG O'DELL CRIMINAL JUSTICE SCHOLARSHIP GOLF OUTING: The annual Greg O'Dell Criminal Justice Scholarship Golf Outing will be held Friday, September 20, at the Eagle Crest Golf Club. On this day...

In 1778 - The United States signed its first treaty with a Native American tribe, the Delaware Nation.

Quote:

"To err is human; to forgive, divine." - Alexander Pope

Fact:

In the United States, there is little difference between the terms "college" and "university." However, the term "college" in other countries, such as Canada, refers to a junior college or trade college, where as a "university" is larger, more research focused, and usually contains multiple colleges.
