SPECIAL NOTICES:

* ROAD PROJECTS THAT WILL AFFECT EMU CAMPUS: The City of Ypsilanti will be performing several road projects that will affect the University next week as follows:

- Concrete paving will occur on Cornell Road starting Monday Aug. 4, between Collegewood Drive and Huron River Drive. This work will take approximately one week (weather permitting) and during this time period we can expect intermittent lane closures.
- Concrete work will also occur at Adams and Pearl streets, near the EMU College of Business. The work will cause the temporary closure of the parking structure at the COB, from Wednesday, Aug. 6 through Monday, Aug. 11(weather permitting). NOTE: The City has agreed to allow EMU faculty, staff and students to park at the North Washington Street lot during this closure for free. The lot is north of the AATA bus terminal, and you enter from Washington Street.

TAKE A STAND AGAINST DOMESTIC VIOLENCE: There have been many stories in the news lately about sexual assault and domestic violence in our communities, from University campuses and sports teams to the world of business. Imagine a day when every father, brother, husband, friend, son, partner, community member and decision maker says with conviction, "It won't happen here."

Join other EMU colleagues and make your voices heard by standing together against domestic violence and support SafeHouse Center by joining the "Men Taking a Stand" campaign. Deadline is Friday, Aug. 15. Simply complete the registration form and then return the completed form to SafeHouse Center along with your donation of $100 or more.
