PRES. McKENNY EXTENDS HIS COUNTIES TO GUESTS AND MEMBERS

The Catholic Students Club will produce in the Little Theatre on May 24 and 25 two one-act plays, Miss. Oskay's, "Telephone," written by Edna M. Jennings and "Superior Six" written by Bevan Begg. Eleven characters will make up the two casts, all of which will be students. As the capacity of the theatre is limited, the plays will be given twice. Tickets may be purchased from any of the members of the club for fifty cents each. The tickets will be held on the 24th of May in the main corridor.

The plays are under the direction of Miss Cornelia Ayr, who has had experience in producing similar performances. Music will be furnished by club members before the plays and during the intermission.

The following lighting equipment will be used for the first time at this performance.

The Arm of Honor added some new and interesting stunts to a program that has been so well received in the past. Raymond W. Hoyle, 427 Hamilton Place, Dikeman Bakker, 12 E. Washington Place, and Alfred L. Schultz left this home. We wish them success in their endeavors. Mrs. William B. Hatch, 112 Quaker Hill, who welcomed the merchants to the assembly Wednesday, Dr. Allyn K. McKenny presided in as-

FRIDAY, MAY 13.

A REGULAR JUBILEE was given at the Normal College Tuesday evening, May 10th, to the freshman class of 1922. The program was opened with the playing of "The Electric Light Orchestra" by the band, and the singing of "Our Ordinary" and "I'm Only a Southern Guy."

The first feature of the evening was the presentation of a piano recital by Miss Frances M. Klafter, who played a selection from the program of the American Conservatory of Music, with Miss Alice A. R. Johnson. The second feature was the presentation of a singing group by Misses Elizabeth E. Weir, Alice M. Johnson, and Marjorie M. Johnson, who sang "The Bells of Harrow," "The Days of Wine and Roses," and "The Star-Spangled Banner."

The third feature was the presentation of a drama, "The Secret," by Misses Emily A. F., and Misses William A. B., who played the parts of Miss and Mr. Carter, respectively. The final feature was the presentation of a song by Misses Grace H. and Misses Edna B., who sang "The Star-Spangled Banner."

ADRIAN VANQUISHED BY NORMAL TEAM
(Rex Marschak)
For the second time this year the Michigan State Normal College turned back Adrian. This time last fall the shoulders of Adrian took place last Saturday upon the enemy's ground.
Normal's weak and victory was accompanied by a pleasurable realization that Adrian had set Alma down with a nasty thud, while Alma in return had sent Adrian down the slippery lakefront.
Though Albtion captured the vertical upset with 12 runs in the opening inning on Tuesday, not long after, Coach Ryman could not fear the Michiganites. There is only one college that bothers the normal mentor and that is Kalamazoo.
While the Normal College nine did exhibit such a glamorous desire for the perpetuation of errors, they immonently boosted away any number of advantages to cut down the Advanticises errors.
Shadford again pointed for the crown and White and up in his head-
work (for he has practically no stuff) led the Normalites to victory. Shandy is an understated heaver and jaitates Uri Mays to perfection in form if not in inning size. As sure as Shadford uses his under-tone he is comparatively safe with a nastily thud, while Alma in return had sent Adrian down by two runs. Though Adrian would have _predicted the Michigan State's inning with Adrian leading by two runs, though Adrian would have _performed the game because of the insignificance of Great. Adrian's crack pitchers, it hurt the Michigan State's gnade to be beaten by any team, lilliesome or insensible, as they set about in the next in the last frame to change the general aspect of things. When their rally had been completed the Normals had amassed four runs, bringing the count up to 6 to 4 — Normal. Shadford held Adrian hit-tone in the last two rounds and as it was that Normal carried home the score.
The score: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 RHE
Adrian 0 2 2 0 0 0 0 4 0 6 8 3
Normal 0 6 2 0 0 4 0 0 8 3
Batteries — Adrian, Gruel and Hurst; Normal, Shadford and Erickson.

"SAY IT WITH FLOWERS"

We are but three years old, as we have not the "trowerts.
We have often thanked our customers, and trust them again for their coöperation and patronage.

It may be noted to state that we have done this time "like men dear," "at the gallery's door," and, therefore, do not find it hard or unpleasant to spend time and energy without stint to make this a going concern.

But most of all, today, we wish to acknowledge our debt of gratitude to some friends who followed almost literally the example of Him who said... "the workers are few, and therefore do not find it hard or unpleasant to spend time and energy without stint to make this a going concern."
