FOOTBALL DOPE
LOOKS PROMISING
OLD LEATHER PUSHERS BACK GOOD LOOKING NEW ONE ALSO ON HAND

The football situation looks de dulously promising for M. S. N. C. The squad began work the early part of last week and seems to be in shape.

Of last year's eleven, Crooney, Py, Erickson, and Harben are back. Some very promising new men have reported, and the team has been well planned with the outlook.
The first game will be won from description on Saturday, October 9, on Normal Field.

According to Joe McElhiney, the team is going to be produced can be lined up in the next game. So your extra hard-plated-pegged gear and both your false teeth and get ready to see something happen. You won't be disappointed.

Professor and Mrs. D' Ooge were in the East during the summer. Our Latin teacher has recently publish ed a new Latin text-book, and he went to Boston to supersede it publication. During their trip Dr. and Mrs. D' Ooge visited Gloucester and other New England towns of interest. You should hear Prof. D'Ooge's funny stories.

Prof. Ford spent two weeks of his vacation on a fishing trip in the Upper Peninsula.

Miss Walton has recently returned from a week's outing at Port Huron.

Suggestions From Postoffice About Your Mail, Etc.

4. Always put a return address on your pictures.

Sending Laundry By Parcel Post

5. If you send your laundry home by parcel post, see that it is well packed. The postmaster suggests that you use a light fibre suitcase or some other strong, durable receptacle. Put inside the case a slip with the name and address of sender and addressee. In case the label becomes illegible, this serves to identify the owner.

6. Every parcel post package must bear a return address in the upper left-hand corner of the address tag.

7. If you send your laundry home, you are advised to insure it. The insurance rates are as follows: for values up to $5, 5 cents; up to $25, 10 cents; up to $50, 15 cents; up to $100, 25 cents. In spite of the well-known efficiency of the postal service, this is a reasonable good gamble. Be sure to keep a list of the articles.

A Few More Suggestions

8. Mail your letters as early in the day as possible.

9. If you change your rooming place do not forget to fill out a 'change of address' card.

10. Do not stop your carrier to ask him for your mail. He is a good fellow and would gladly oblige, but the regulations forbid it.

11. In the postoffice, the general delivery and registry windows are open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. The money order and postal savings window are open from 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

12. The carriers make two deliveries a day and sometimes a third, depending upon the prompt arrival of certain trains.

Library

The Normal College Library is one of the largest in the state, containing approximately 60,000 volumes. The Library consequently is one of the most important places on the campus. Most students have occasion to do considerable reference work there.

The normal days the Library is open from 7:30 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. On Saturdays it closes at 5:00 p.m. and on holidays and during vacation at 5:00 p.m. All students are entitled to use the Library at all times. Any student who whispers in the Library will be instantly smitten with the lightning of the Most High.

The Reading Room contains bound magazines, encyclopedia and yearbooks. To obtain other books a charging slip must be filled out and presented at the Delivery Desk. Do not lose patience with the Library assistants, they are not as stupid as they may seem.

Any book taken from the Library must be stamped at the Loan Desk. If you want to take a book out over night you may reserve it at the Loan Desk any time before 4 p.m. It will be held out between four and six. Any book so taken must be returned before nine the next morning. A book may be taken at any time for one day use.

There are two card catalogues in the Library. The author catalogue is the author and the title-subject catalogue. The author catalogue contains an alphabetical list of authors and the titles of their books. The other catalogue contains an alphabetical list of the titles of books and the subjects of which they treat.

The "call-number" is in the upper left corner of the card. The Library is well supplied with Periodical indexes and Readers' Guides. Directions for their use may be obtained from the Library assistants.

Do not hesitate to ask for information and help in finding the article you want.

"That girJ that works down at the bottle factory?"

"Who is it?"

"That girl that works down at the bottle factory?"

"Yes, she, eighty-two I be, an' ev'ry tooth in my head same as the day I were born."
