M. S. N. C. Plays Alma No­
time; 7:30 P. M.; See New Game

M. S. N. C. lost its second game of the season Saturday when the strong Mt. Pleasant Normal defeated it 45 to 37 on the local floor. The game was characterized by the excellent teamwork of the upholders and by the baskv ball club of Alma.

Dillon and Francis. Davidson and Snarey alternated at right forward in the time being able to score more than one basket apiece. Dillon

The Mission Lunch...serve your wants for...

The Portia Literary Society held its regular meeting on January 17 at the home of Miss Rankin. After a short business meeting Miss Alice Beat gave an account of the life of Victor Hugo. Then the story of his opera, "Cavalleria Rusticana," was told by Miss Marion Richardson. The program closed with several Victoria selections from this opera.

Library...Through the kind thought of Professor Jefferies, the Library copy of The Frivoli Arctic was given an added value, having been autographed by Dr. Stafsness.

The mid-winter meeting brought many of our former library assistants to see us, including Lila Miller who teaches household arts at Fern Dale, Ruth Rogers of Jackson and Gertrude Fisher, near Ann Arbor, and Mary and Sara Jameson.

Three books of particular value should be noted among this week's news books: Who's Who 1922, the great biographical handbook compiled through not exclusively by British, being the seventy-fourth issue. Whittaker's Almanac for 1922, containing an account of astronomical and other phenomena and a vast amount of information concerning the government, finances, population, etc., of the nations of the world with special reference to the British Empire. Channing's History of the United States, v. 5. Period of transition, 1815-1848.
