ONE ACT PLAYS IN COLLEGE THEATRE

"UNSEEN" AND "THIRD ANNOUNCE" BEING FAVORABLE

COMMENT

The Play Production class, under the direction of Prof. J. Stuart Lassen, Wednesday evening staged two delightful comedies before a modest crowd in the Little Theatre.

"Unseen," a comedy by Alice Germer, was well presented by Arvid Brown as Geoffry Baldwin, Frances Brown as Lois Baldwin, and Alma Raymond as the maid.

The second play was put on by the Physical Education man who gave a full parallel hour's presentation. Irwin, Winifred, and John and Tomkinson did very clever work in this act.

The Pyramid act by the Physical Education department was very well given by those physical education students who were very cooperative. The Pyramids act by the Physical Education department was very well given by those physical education students who were very cooperative.

As a fitting climax to the concert series this term the summer school chorus, under the direction of Con­ductor Russell L. Gee, gave a pro­gram at the Pea Auditorium last evening.

The programs for each concert have given their audience every opportunity to enjoy the talented people who have presented them.

The series of concerts connected with this summer by the Conservatory faculty has been a source of pleasure and inspiration to the students and citizens of Ypsilanti who have been fortunate enough to hear them. The programs for each concert have been skillfully arranged and the artists who have presented them have given their audiences every opportunity to enjoy the talented people who have presented them.

NA'T. SCIENCE CLUB
In Michigan a new club for boys and girls. You will be glad to learn of the formation of the Michigan and North Student, which was founded during the past year. If you are a resident of Michigan, or if you know any Michigan people, you will be interested in their work and would like to assist in making it a success. There are those who have signed up for the work of this club, and they will send you the latest news of the club. We are planning more of the same, and we hope to have you join us in this work.

Miss Walton and Miss Andrews entertain

Last evening Miss Walton and Miss Andrews gave one of their delightful lunch parties to some of their friends who were visiting the town. Among the guests were Mr. Beck, teacher of the University of Southern California; Mr. and Mrs. Pittman and others of the Rural School Department; Mr. and Mrs. Irion, the teachers of the New School Department; Mr. and Mrs. Pittman and others of the Science Department; Miss Phaltski of Arkansas; Miss Dalton of South Dakota; Miss Flug Wond and other former students.

Library

The staff of the Training Department Library reports unusual interest from the students in the New Law work, one of whom made a full set of the Little Black Sambo figures which so bewitch the children.

The latest book list posted in the Library has the caption, "A good book for an idle hour," and lists some twenty of the more recent novels in the college library.

The Library has just received Volume 10 of the Classified Catalogue of the Carnegie Library at Pittsburgh. This volume brings the printed listing of the accessions of this large library up to the year 1921. The accessions are arranged in class order according to the Dewey Decimal System, and there is an author index besides. As we use the Decimal Classification, these volumes are among our most valuable cataloging tools.

The Catholic Encyclopedia Supplement makes the seventeenth volume of the Catholic Encyclopedia. The first volume of which was published in 1913-14. Like the work which it supplements, this volume, which covers the period 1913-21, is intended as a compendium of authoritative information on the entire cycle of Catholic doctrine, history and literature, disregarding altogether facts which have no bearing on the Church. The supplementary material is chiefly biographical and geographical, to meet the special needs of those time arising in world affairs during the past eight years.

English 28° may sound very precise but in reality it is Dr. Rimous's new course in Modern Poetry. A few of the most recent acronyms for this work are as follows:

Colon, Flatfoot—Boy who knows what the birds said.

Colomb, Pedantic—Girl who sat by the ashem.

Dr. de Mars, Walter—Down全场．

Dewey, Anapal—Modern verse.

Dillon, E. W.—Hill tracks.

Gallagher, B. E.—Book of English verse.

Goffard, C. F.—Daffodil field.

MeCruft & Wilson—The Unwanted years.

Nichols, J. G.—Song of three friends.

Seymour, U. K.—A miscellany of British poetry.

ATHLETIC NOTES

The workouts which were ordered at the Marshall track, and leaving athletes at the end of the spring meet, have been resumed from A. E. Thynne & Co. and the proud revere with strange men, who were trials on the same ground. A feature of the spring, too, is the single stripe of white on the sleeves of the United States athletes, which have now their letter but also colors of the collection which have just arrived. These stripes are also a few details three and four of the week.

In the state championship track meet held in Detroit Saturday, "Bill" Frey was first in the 100-yard dash, and high hurdles and fourth in the hurdles. Charlie McManus third places in the hill and broad jump, and Wamer came fourth in the 100-yard dash.

The second round of the summer long jump championships has been played and eight men are still in the running. They were not able to be off the track. The final 100-yard meet, which was planned for Saturday, was rained out.

Saturday at the outdoor track meet will include the 100-yard dash, 100-yard hurdles, long jump, 4×100-yard relay, and a race for two minutes, 100 yards, 200 yards, 400 yards, and 800 yards. The second round will be held on Saturday, July 29th.

A picture as beautiful as it is with Wyndham Standish; a vivid romance of your life, The Garey screen; a splendid American romance. Such a picture as beautiful as it is; you are not to see it. The picture is not to be held in the world of your life.
