CLASS OF XIII

Girls' Meet Won by 112 Points; Both between the girls of the Junior and Senior classes was won by the Seniors; second victory for the girls of the proud class of XIII; last year, as Juniors, they won over the others to evince the greater endurance of their determination and ability.

The tench annual Indoor meet between the girls of the Junior and Senior classes was won by the Seniors, who attained first places were Stearns and Esther Campbell (J). This event (50 yard dash) was exciting as usual, and were made up to a few days of the meet. Those figures.

The Senior girls may justly feel the significant fact that the Seniors, who had been seriously ill this year, won the 'varsity, state, interstate and national contests.

The Normal Hall will be tonight the scene of forensic battle. Five colleges, with Normal, compete for the Girls' prizes of $75 and $50, under the auspices of the Michigan Intercollegiate Peace Association. This makes the sixth annual contest to be conducted by the advocates of peace in the interest of spreading information concerning the peace propaganda. As this is the first time that the contest has ever been held in Ypsi, Normal students are prepared to give the visiting orators a warm welcome. The program begins at 8 o'clock.

Normal Hall college and will speak on "Universal peace." Although but a freshman, he won the medal in the college declamatory contest, and first place in the oratorical contest of the Amphi- thlyphon literary society, A. L. Margolis will champion the cause of M. A. C., and will speak on "War and peace." Mr. Margolis is a junior.

HONOR TEACHERS FOR SPRING
Most of Grades to Have Two Instead of Merely One

The honor teachers for next quarter could not be obtained in full Wednesday night, but as completed at that time, the list is:
1st Grade—Elizabeth Black.
2nd Grade—Donna Shaffer.
4th Grade—Anna Wilson, Helene
Hibberts.
5th Grade—Ruth Brown.
5th-6th Grade—Marion Lang.
8th Grade—Julia Mungur, Leigh
Hubbell.
Wood-Drift School.
2nd Grade—Haselle Main.
3rd Grade—VIII did not have one.
A new feature this quarter is having two honor teachers in most of the grades, it having been customary to have but one.
The new plan will prove more beneficial to the critic teacher and student teachers and divide in the work devolving upon the honors teacher. The magnitude of which has sometimes been the cause of students refusing the honor.

Albion School:
Thinks That Olivet Stacked the Cards in Oratorical Contest Albion has sounded the cry of "Trespassery!" over the result of the state oratorical contest at Adrian the 7th. The Methodists claim that while they were out-distanced fairly, either Williamsdale or M. A. C. should have taken precedence of Olivet for first honor. They point to a number of suspicious circumstances surrounding the choice of judges, and charge that the cards were stacked in favor of the Olivet orator. Last week's "Pleiad" (the Albion college paper) came out with an editorial headed, "Read This, Olivet!" In part it follows:
"The contest was close and we have reason to complain because we were awarded third place. On the other hand, we believe, that we have a right to protest against the decision which accorded first place to the Olivet man. Never before in the history of the intercollegiate contest has the announcemnt of first honors met with universal disfavor from the audience.
This was the exception. Not even a small portion of the audience seriously applauded the decision. By common consent there were at least four or ages which gave Perkins first place, are

GIRLS’ MEET

bar of experienced high school players on their team, several of them opposed to star players, had led the students to expect a much closer contest. The Seniors were easily and showed much better team work. The Juniors lasted more frequently. The game was efficiently refereed by Miss Nell Sanford of Tech High, Detroit. The balance of the program was run off Saturday evening in the same smooth and good-spirited manner. The absence of the extreme rivalry played at last year’s meet gave the spectators a better chance of following the really excellent work being done on the floor. On this point, Mrs. Burton, director of the meet, states that the standard of work done this year was superior to anything that has preceded.

The Seniors won the newcomb contrast easily, and the Juniors forfeited the balance beam on account of the illness of their manager, although they did earn something in the preliminaries on the beam. The Senior entrants, Florence Greenwald and Viva Quick, not only showed some very clever ability in the stunts that they put on, but also in the decorative features that went with them. An exceptionally pretty effect was their march on the bars, wearing lighted candles, while the room was darkened.

Ada Pierce, for the Juniors, won the rope-climbing, her time being 11 1-5 seconds.

Emperor Ball was a closely contested event, but the Seniors took it by a slim margin of one point and a fraction.

Perhaps the prettiest work of the evening was the individual folk dancing. Lucille Brooks (S) interpreted Hadi’s “Sonna” and Esther Campbell, “Chamagne” of Herbets. Both dances were exquisitely given, and provoked immense applause. Miss Brooks was given a lead of 1 1-3 by the judges’ marking.

The finals in the 15-yard dash were run off in three heats, Misses Dundo (J) and Regal (S) obtaining first and second places in the final one. Miss Dundo made 13 points for her class in the preliminaries and Miss Regal 10. The best time was 2 1-5.

The class club swinging was remarkably good this year, both classes, but the fact that the Juniors lacked seven girls to meet the required number, took just seven off their score. Alina Ashley (J) and Ruth Scovill (S) represented the classes in individual club swinging and were rather evenly matched. Miss Scovill getting the decision by 1 1-3 points.

The running high jump not only broke all records for the girls’ meets but also brought the Juniors decidedly into their own. So good were the Juniors that they obtained a lead of 20 points over the Seniors by this event alone. Edna Montgomery, the Junior general manager, took the jump at 4 feet 6. Other good jumpers were Misses Pool (J), 4 feet 3; Adams (J), 4 feet; Brooks (S), 3 feet 11; Regal (S), Gallacher (S), and Baguley (S), all at 3 feet 4.

Traveling rings went to the Junior’s Lucille Sharp astound the spectators with her endurance and agility. The other entrants were Susie Tomsilin (J), Edith Baguley (S) and Lucille Brooks (S).

The tug-of-war, which concluded the meet, was won by the Juniors.

Of the total seventeen events, the Seniors won twelve, but at least five of these were victories by 11 points. The Juniors won by heavy heads in the rings, dash and jump; the Seniors took decisively the clubs, the beams, basketball, swimming (worked off separately), newcomb. There was only a difference of 6 1-2 points in the floor events of Saturday evening. The preliminaries had gone to the Seniors by 42 1-2 points, and Friday night gave them an additional lead of 61 7-12 points, which increased their total lead over the Juniors to 111 1-3 points.

J. Luidens, Harold Hendershott and Oscar Wood on College Team

Three of the six students who will represent Normal College next May in the triangular debates with M. A. C. and Alma, were chosen Saturday morning at Starkweather Hall, when three men from each of the two debating clubs faced each other in forensic battle. It so happened that in drawing places, the men were arranged by clubs, the Websters having the affirmative and the Lincolns the negative of the question: "Resolved, That the Federal government should adopt the policy of regulating trusts rather than of dissolving them." The work, however, was individual and not team work.

The Websters were represented by John Goody, John Luidens and Oscar Wood; the Lincolns by Lu Willson, Bynen Grettenger and Harold Hendershott. Professor Lott, and Messrs. Norris and Fuller acted as judges, their choice being John Luidens, first place; Hendershott, second; and Wood, third, with Grettenger as alternate.

The all-school contest, in which anyone who thinks he can make a place on the debating team may enter, comes off Tuesday evening, probably in room 51. This promises to be a lively affair. An especial interest is given, as a result of the fact that two young ladies have drawn places, Marion M. Callaghan and Evelyn Graham, both of whom have demonstrated their ability to make the men blush. Leigh Hubbell, who represented the college last year against Grand Rapids Y. M. C. A. and Alma will enter. Mr. Hubbell has not been active in the Webser club this quarter and hence did not enter the interclub preliminary. The others who have drawn places are John Goody, Wendell Johnson, Reuben Grettenger, Arthur Cable and Lu Willson.

Juniors Take Men's Basketball by Lead of Four Points

The Juniors took their first contest of the year in the men's basketball game at the gym last Thursday night, when they won by the slim margin of four points. The final score stood at 36-32. The game was fast but profuse in fouls, and was about the sort of a game that would be expected from two teams who had not practiced much to speak of. The men had been chosen in a hurry and had had no time to work up team play.

The summary: Score first half, 11-26: Final, 26-32: Field baskets: L. McKenny, 2; Tenney, 2; Davis, 1; Crouse, 1; Brundage, 4; out of 6; McKenny, 2 out of 3; Davis, 12 out of 19. One point awarded to Juniors. Referee, Beyerman, Steimle.
