Lectures & Presentations

WOMEN, FOOD, PLEASURE AND CONTROL: BEYOND "CHOICE": As part of the 2015-16 Philosophy Speaker Series, Lisa Schwartzman, professor at Michigan State University will speak on Thursday, Nov. 5, from 5:30 – 7 p.m. in room 352 in the Student Center. Schwartzman asks: Why are discussions of food, diet, and obesity so often centered on individuals, and not on the myriad ways that culture, class, race, and gender affect eating practices? How can we make these discussions more realistic, complex, and relevant? Sponsored by the Department of History & Philosophy. Contact Michael Doan at mdoan@emich.edu with any questions.

HISTORY AND PHILOSOPHY SPEAKER SERIES: EMU Professor Jesse Kauffman, will talk on Thursday, Nov. 5, from 5 – 6:30 p.m. in the Halle Library Auditorium. Kauffman will discuss his new book "Elusive Alliance: The German Occupation of Poland in WWI," in this installment of the History Section Speaker Series. Learn about the invasion and why Germany's attempt at nation building failed. This event is free and LBC Approved. Contact Mary-Elizabeth Murphy at mmurph54@emich.edu with questions.

ORAL DEFENSE: Joe Bauer, from the College of Technology will present his oral defense on "Understanding How Organizations Operate Their IT Capacity Management Processes," on Monday, Nov. 16, from 12 - 1:30 p.m. in room 206 Sill Hall.

* GUEST SPEAKER TONYA MATTHEWS WILL TALK ON "UNDERREPRESENTED POPULATION IN STEM": Join DCI and the VISION Volunteer Center for the Intersections event "Underrepresented Populations in STEM" with Tonya Matthews on Wednesday, Nov. 11 from 5 - 6:30 p.m. in the Halle Library Auditorium.

Matthews, the president and CEO of the Michigan Science Center and spoken word artist, will speak about her own journey and careers in STEM. Contact the VISION Volunteer Center at 487-1313 or vision@emich.edu with questions.

CPR & AED TRAINING FOR FACULTY AND STAFF: Environmental Health and Safety will hold a CPR & AED training for faculty and staff on Thursday, Nov. 19, 9 - 11:30 a.m. in room 300 in Halle Library. To register, please send an email to Kathryn Wilhoff at kwilhoff@emich.edu or call 487-0794.

EQUALITY KNOWLEDGE PROJECT SPEAKER SERIES: Bethany Coston, from Albion College will be the next Equality Knowledge Project Guest Speaker. Coston will talk on "Invisible Violence, Invisible Victims: The Health Related Consequences of Same-Sex and Intimate Partner Violence" on Wednesday, Nov. 18, at 5:30 p.m. in room 320 in the Student Center. Intimate partner violence (IPV) against women, at the hands of men, has been widely researched, publicized and organized against. But, there has been little movement academically, politically, or socially on the causes and consequences of same-sex and/or LGBTQ+ intimate partner violence. Using data from the National Intimate Partner and Sexual Violence Survey, this talk reports on both the prevalence of and the negative physical and psychological health outcomes of LGBTQ+ IPV. Suggestions are made for future research and the importance of community organizing is highlighted.

EQUALITY KNOWLEDGE PROJECT SPEAKER SERIES: The EMU Equality Research Center is pleased to present the next guest speaker for the Equality Knowledge Project Speaker Series on Wednesday, Nov. 18 at 5:30 p.m. in room 320 in the Student Center. The guest speaker will be Bethany Coston, from Albion College, who will speak about "Invisible Violence, Invisible Victims: The Health Related Consequences of Same-Sex and Intimate Partner Violence." To see the complete speaker series, visit the Equality Knowledge Project Speaker Series homepage.

THE GEORGE LIEPA SIGMA XI SPEAKER SERIES: Dana Dolinoy leads the Environmental Epigenetics and Nutrition Laboratory at the U of M School of Public Health and serves as associate professor in the Environmental Health Sciences and Nutritional Sciences departments. She will present on "Your Epigenome: DNA is not Necessarily Your Destiny" on Thursday, Nov. 19, from 7 – 8 p.m. in the Student Center Auditorium. A dessert reception will immediately follow. The Dolinoy Lab investigates the role played by environmental exposure to chemical, nutritional, and behavioral factors that can alter gene expression and affect health; this has included the potentially harmful effects of many common compounds, such as bisphenol A (BPA). Her research is conducted using animal models, human clinical samples and human population studies. Her work has recently been recognized as a model approach that may allow for direct assessment of the impact of environmental exposure on human disease. The event is LBC approved. Contact Lydia Kret at Lydia.kret@emich.edu for further information.

SUPPORT FOR FAMILIES LIVING WITH AUTISM: The EMU Autism Collaborative Center will hold a monthly discussion group at the ACC-EMU, for parents, caregivers, brothers, sisters and family members to share experiences and resources. This is a free community service. The dates are:

- Monday, Nov. 16, 6 - 7:30 p.m., room 121, Fletcher Building

Childcare is provided during the session for those families that RSVP in advance. Please contact estoelt@emich.edu or call the ACC-EMU at 487-2892.

2015-16 STAR LECTURE SERIES "SOARING HIGHER-PURSUIING A LIFE WELL-LIVED": The Honors College is pleased to present the next Star Lecture speaker on Tuesday, Dec. 1, from 7 - 8:30 p.m. in the Student Center Ballroom. John Feldkamp will speak on "Conflicts We Face with our Identities While Pursuing a Well-Lived Life."

We all wear multiple identities that define us, and it's the decisions we make in that identity that define us not only in that role, but also as a person: child, parent, professional, partner, and self. Born and raised as a musician, farmer's son, expected math teacher; come hear the evolution of Feldkamp as he shares the joys, the sorrow, and the tension that shape some of the identities he wears today seeking the best decision in any given moment while pursuing a well-lived life. For more information, visit the EMU Honors College homepage or contact Rebecca Sipes at rsipe@emich.edu.

EQUALITY KNOWLEDGE PROJECT SPEAKER SERIES: Beverly Mihalko, from EMU will speak on Tuesday, Dec. 8 at 5:30 p.m. in room 310A in the Student Center. Mihalko will talk on "Assessment of Culturally Competent Care for LGBT Older Adults: Current Practice in Michigan Long-term Care Facilities." For more information, visit the Equality Knowledge Project Speaker Series homepage.

Park for free and take the free shuttle to the game. Please RSVP for the pregame party by Friday, Oct. 30 to: bwooster@emich.edu.

CELEBRATE "DIA DE LOS MUERTOS": The Latino Student Association invites the campus community to a "Dia de los Muertos celebration on Tuesday, Nov. 3 from 6:30 - 9 p.m. in the Best Hall Lounge. Some people have a lot of misconceptions about this celebration and organizers hope to bring more awareness to students about what "Dia de los Muertos" is, how it is celebrated and why it is important to the Latino population. "Dia de los Muertos" is a Latino tradition, which originated in Mexico where people celebrate the lives of the deceased with food, drink, parties and activities the dead enjoyed in life. There will be face painting, sugar skulls, music, dancing and learning. Please contact rmaldon2@emich.edu for more information.

EXPLORE EASTERN UNDERGRADUATE OPEN HOUSE: Register now for the Explore Eastern Open House on Saturday, Nov. 7, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Explore Eastern is a great way for high school and transfer students to learn about EMU and how an Eastern education can create a path to your future. All students attending Explore Eastern can apply for admission FREE of charge—a $35 savings. Reserve your spot today for the next Explore Eastern Open House or call 487-6453.

HONORING VETERANS AT HILL AUDITORIUM: The Rotary Club of Ann Arbor is inviting Veterans and their families to attend a free event to honor Veterans on Wednesday, Nov. 11, at 6:30 p.m. at Hill Auditorium in Ann Arbor, MI. Noted Veterans will tell their stories punctuated by a spirited medley of patriotism and sacrifice performed by the U of M Alumni Band, the Concordia University Choir, the cappella group Dicks and Janes and solo artist Katherine Larson. The event will benefit and support an initiative to provide a free and urgently needed short-term residence for Veterans undergoing treatment and their families and caregivers. Contributions will help build the first such residence for the benefit of veterans in Michigan. Many of Michigan's Veterans travel significant distances from low-income counties to seek treatment at the VA Ann Arbor Health System. They are challenged both by the shortage of lodging in Ann Arbor and by the rising expense of local hotel rooms, up 31% since 2011. More detailed program information can be found at the Veterans Program at Hill Auditorium.

Arts, Film & Entertainment

ALL TIME LOW AND SLEEPING WITH SIRENS COMING TO THE EMU CONVOCATION CENTER: All Time Low and Sleeping with Sirens will perform at the EMU Convocation Center on Friday, Nov. 6. DONATE YOUR GENTLY USED SHOES AND HELP SAVE A KITTEN: The Children's Institute has teamed up with the Michigan Orphan Kitten Rescue (MOKR) and Shoe Box Recycling and need your gently used shoes. As you begin preparing for the upcoming change in weather, help the Children's Institute help local kittens by dropping off all paired men's, women's and kids shoes that are still usable to the Children's Institute at Fletcher School on Cornell. The kitten rescue gets money for the shoes to help orphan kittens. To date, the Children's Institute has help MOKR raise over $1,000 for the orphaned kittens care and preparation for adoption into their forever homes. For questions or additional information, email mokr@mikittens.org or visit their Facebook Page at Michigan Orphan Kitten Rescue Facebook homepage. If you have any questions, please call Tracey Buhinicek at the Children's Institute at 487-2348.

EMU CAMPUS DIRECTORY FOR STUDENTS, FACULTY AND STAFF: The directory is touch compatible and features a responsive design for optimized display and functionality on desktop, tablet or mobile devices. Users can search for students, faculty or staff via a single search box with results being cleanly displayed in expandable/collapsible rows. The new campus directory can be accessed directly at www.emich.edu/directory or by using the single search box at the top of any EMU webpage. For more details, please read the press release about the new EMU Campus Directory. Please contact Darcy Gifford at 487-5375 or dgiffor2@emich.edu if you have any questions.

PERSONAL DIRECTORY CORRECTIONS/UPDATES: Personal Directory listings are populated through the Banner system. To check your personal listing for accuracy, please visit <http://it.emich.edu/service/online/directory/index.cfm?fuseaction=main>. If a listing needs to be updated, an employee's supervisor should update the information through a link located on the supervisor's My.Emich Employee tab. Instructions are as follows:

- Visit My.emich.edu
- Click on the Employee tab
- Click on the Employee link below the row of tabs
- Click on the Update Employee Campus Address link. You will then see a table of your direct reports. To edit, click on the EID or Phone links to edit. Once you have completed your edits, click the Submit button. NOTE: it may take up to 24 hours for your change to take effect.

For non-supervisory staff, alternate update methods are explained on the Directory Information Updates page at <https://www.emich.edu/it/services/directoryupdates.php>.

EMU ONLINE DEPARTMENT DIRECTORY CORRECTIONS: Please take the time to check your department directory listing at <http://www.emich.edu/telephones/> for accuracy. If the information needs to be updated, please send the information to: dept_directory@emich.edu. For questions, contact Debra Burke at 487-6895 or by e-mail at dburke15@emich.edu.

EMU PUBLIC SAFETY TIPS AND REMINDERS: The EMU Police Department provides a variety of community service programs focused on safety awareness for our residential halls, classrooms and campus. These include crime prevention seminars, and training sessions and programs on sexual assault and alcohol awareness for faculty, staff and students.

The EMU Police Department use high visibility foot patrols, mobile patrols, bicycle patrols and an extensive video monitoring system to help deter crime. It is important to report crimes or suspicious activities immediately -- police have a better opportunity to apprehend suspects and solve crimes. Please review the information below and report any crimes or any suspicious activities. Reporting a crime or suspicious activity can be done anonymously.

- To report an incident, or information anonymously, please call 487-4847 or send an email to dps_questions@emich.edu.
- Call Crime Stoppers at (800) SPEAKUP (800) 773-2587 or email at www.1800speakup.org or visit the Crime Stoppers homepage.
- For more information on public safety, please visit the EMU Public Safety Tips homepage.
- EMU publishes a Daily Crime Log of all crimes reported to the EMU Department of Public Safety. This information can be viewed at EMU Daily Crime Log homepage. EMU also publishes the Daily Crime Log for the City of Ypsilanti.
- Online, real-time crime mapping covering EMU and the City of Ypsilanti is available at: <http://geodata.acad.emich.edu/Crime/Main.htm>.

Telephone numbers and email accounts listed above are set-up specifically for those who wish to report a crime or information related to a crime. Your identity will remain anonymous.

For questions pertaining to EMU Safety Tips or crime prevention, please contact Police Officer Candace Dorsey, Crime Prevention Coordinator at 487-0987 or by email at cdorsey@emich.edu.
