CHASING THE SOVIET MIRAGE: THE APPEAL OF RUSSIA TO AMERICANS IN THE 20th CENTURY: Dr. David Wagner, a historian of American-Soviet cultural relations, will discuss the historical appeal of the Soviet Union to American intellectuals in the 20th century on Thursday, November 10 from 4:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m. in the Halle Library Auditorium. American intellectuals used American-Soviet friendship organizations to discuss and advance ideas and ideals that were current at the time but unpopular in the United States. The actual conditions of the Soviet Union were less important to these intellectuals than that its existence provided opportunities to bring experimental ideas for social justice and equality in the United States into vogue. Wagner will describe the leaders of these American-Soviet friendship organizations and discuss how their experience illuminate insight into the character of pro-Russian sympathy among subcultures in the United States today.
