General Information

HISTORY

Eastern Michigan University (originally Michigan State Normal School) was founded by an act of the state legislature in the spring of 1849, the sixth such state-supported school to be founded in this country. In the fall of that year it was located in Ypsilanti by the State Board of Education. In the fall of 1852, it opened its doors to its first classes.

In the act creating the school, the legislature declared the purpose of the school to be "... the instruction of persons, both male and female, in the art of teaching and in all the various branches that pertain to a good common school education ... to give instruction in the fundamental laws of the United States, and in what regards the rights and duties of citizens." In over 100 years the University has not changed its function; it has expanded it and has added new functions. It has grown with the public school systems of Michigan and the nation. As our concept of public education has grown, so has our concept of teacher education.

In 1897, recognizing that a good institution of teacher education must also be a good college, the legislature authorized the State Board of Education to designate the school as Michigan State Normal College. In 1899 this became its legal name. By act of the state legislature in the session of 1955, the college became Eastern Michigan College. On June 1, 1959, the College became Eastern Michigan University. A substantial proportion of the students who come to Eastern Michigan University come to get a good liberal education. It is the basic judgment of those concerned with the operation of the University that the education that produces good teachers also produces good citizens.

In 1958, the University first offered the degree of Master of Arts. The degree of Master of Science was approved in 1959, and the degrees of Specialist in Arts and Specialist in Science were approved in 1964.

ACCREDITATION

Eastern Michigan University is an accredited member of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, and is accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education for the preparation of elementary teachers, secondary teachers, and service school personnel. The specialist's degree is the highest degree approved.

LOCATION

Ypsilanti, in which Eastern Michigan University is located, is thirty miles west of Detroit and seven miles southeast of Ann Arbor. It is the center of an area which provides many outlets for cultural and recreational interests. It is on the main Detroit-Chicago line of the New York Central Railroad and is at the center of a network of bus lines providing direct connection with most larger cities. Frequent bus serv-

Ice is available to the greater Detroit area. Detroit Metropolitan airport, a few miles from Ypsilanti, provides air transportation to all parts of the world. Over three million people, sixty percent of Michigan's total population, live within fifty miles of Ypsilanti.

UNIVERSITY HOUSING

The University offers housing in residence halls and in apartments. At present, there are nine residence halls for women, five for men, and 349 apartments. Graduate students are eligible to live in any of these units, as they are available.

Students living in the residence halls are required to board there also. Room and board in the residence halls is currently $449 per semester. Apartment units rent for $100-$120 per month for one-bedroom apartments and $115-$135 per month for two-bedroom apartments. THE UNIVERSITY RESERVES THE RIGHT TO REVISE THESE RATES WHEN NECESSARY. Applications and additional information may be obtained from the Director of Housing, Housing Office, Eastern Michigan University.

RECREATION AND SOCIAL LIFE

Detailed information concerning recreational and social life on the University campus may be found in the Undergraduate Catalog. Except for intercollegiate athletics, graduate students are eligible and urged to participate in all extracurricular activities.

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT POSSIBILITIES ON CAMPUS

Students interested in earning money with which to pay in part their expenses will be given advice and detailed information upon application at the Placement Office. Students are urged not to come to the University unless they have at the time of entering sufficient money to meet the expenses of the first semester.

VEHICLE REGISTRATION

All students meeting the requirements of law, are eligible to maintain a vehicle on campus. Motor vehicles driven to or on the campus must be registered with the University and the appropriate fee paid at the Collections Department in Pierce Hall during the first week of a session.

TUITION AND REGISTRATION FEE

A student who holds a bachelor's degree will pay graduate tuition regardless of the type of credit received. A senior electing both graduate and undergraduate courses will pay only the undergraduate tuition.

Registration Fee

All students are required to pay a nonrefundable registration fee of $15.00 for each session. This fee is collected when the student pays his tuition.

Late Enrollments

No enrollments will be accepted after the second meeting of a graduate class. This rule will be set aside only during the summer session when the first week of campus classes overlaps the last week of school of an inservice teacher. However, such a student must complete registration in advance, either by mail or during the registration period.

Late Enrollment Fee

A late fee of $5.00 is charged after the last official day of registration.

Fee for Program Changes Initiated by the Student

After registration, a fee of $3.00 will be charged for (1) drop and add changes and (2) the addition of a course. Changes initiated by the Graduate Office, such as those resulting from closed or cancelled classes, do not carry the penalty.

If returned within the time limit listed in the schedule, the student goes to the first meeting of classes without reporting to the official registration in the Graduate Office, room 122, Pierce Hall. A primary advantage to the student is assurance of a place in the classes elected.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR MICHIGAN RESIDENCE

Residence in Michigan, for the purpose of registration in Eastern Michigan University, shall be determined according to the definitions and regulations hereby printed.

1. The residence of a student who is a minor follows that of his parents or legal guardians, except that a minor student who comes to the institution from another State or country cannot be registered as a resident of this State on the basis of having a resident of this State as a guardian except on permission of the board of the institution in each individual case.

2. A person who is at least 21 years of age at the time of registration in the institution and who has resided in this State 6 months next preceding the date of registration without being registered at a college or university during that period is deemed a resident of this State for the purpose of such registration.

3. The residence of a wife follows that of her husband, except that a woman student who is a resident under paragraphs 1 or 2 may continue to register as a resident of this State although subsequently marrying a nonresident student or other nonresident.

4. No person is deemed to have gained or lost a residence in this State while a student at any institution in this State, public or private, except by changes in status effected under paragraphs 1, 3, or 5.
5. A person in the service of the United States, and his wife or minor children, who have met the 6-month residence requirement in paragraph 2, may register as residents of this State.

Purpose

For the most part, graduate programs at Eastern Michigan University are designed to provide training for teachers, supervisors, and administrators. Primary emphasis at all times is on a program of work which shall produce a better teacher. Through its graduate program, the University aims at broadening the general background and knowledge of the student and at substantially increasing his professional skills. The offerings of the Graduate School are sufficiently flexible to permit a program of courses adapted to the individual needs of the student.

Increasingly, graduate programs are available for students whose educational goals are not directed to employment in schools, colleges, and universities. Examples include: business administration, counseling for State agencies, pastoral counseling, industrial counseling, art, music, sciences, and social sciences.

Special Admission to Graduate Study

Special admission to the Graduate School of Eastern Michigan University is granted to a student who expects to transfer credit to another institution, or who is not working toward a degree, or who is uncertain as to the goal sought. Special admission is usually granted for 1 to 6 semester hours of graduate work, although 15 hours of credit in the Department of Special Education may be transferred to any state-supported institution.

A student who is not working toward a degree may elect more than 6 hours only after supplying a transcript of undergraduate credits or sending to the Graduate School a statement that he does not seek a degree at the University. In case a student exceeds the 6 hours originally granted for special admission and then applies for regular admission, the application of all credit on a degree is not automatic. Only those courses applicable on a required and suggested program of courses will be applied toward the degree.

Regular Admission to Graduate Study

Admission to the Graduate School of Eastern Michigan University is open to anyone who holds a degree from a college or university of recognized standing and who is qualified to pursue with profit a program leading to an advanced degree. Seniors in their last session at Eastern Michigan University may carry a combined schedule of graduate and undergraduate courses.

A student enrolling for the first time in graduate work at Eastern Michigan University must complete an Application for Admission form and return it to the Graduate School, together with official transcripts of undergraduate and graduate work taken at other institutions. Transcripts are not required for undergraduate work taken at this University. A student who has not completed all admission requirements shall not be given course credit or receive an official transcript for such credit.

Admission to a program leading to a graduate major in a specialized field is the joint concern of the Dean of the Graduate School and of the department or departments concerned. Standards of admission are established by the department, and the Graduate School administers the policy.

The program of studies is prepared by a graduate adviser or an advisory committee in the applicant’s department. A department may require a substantial paper of research quality. No more than 6 hours of credit may be granted for the research paper and no more than 2 hours of credit for the research paper may be elected in any one session without permission of the departmental adviser and the Dean of the Graduate School.

A department may require an oral examination or a written examination or both. After a student has completed 12 hours of graduate credit, his adviser or advisory committee shall review his progress and shall send to the Dean of the Graduate School and to the Graduate Council a recommendation concerning admission to candidacy for the master’s degree.
Programs Leading to the Degree of Master of Arts (Education) and to a Provisional Certificate

- Elementary Education
- Special Education (Teaching the Handicapped)
- Junior High School Education
- Senior High School Education
- Classroom Teaching

These programs leading to a master's degree are designed for students who hold a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution but who lack some or all of the requirements for a provisional certificate valid in Michigan schools. Applicants for admission to the programs listed above, therefore, must take the initiative in completing all requirements, both graduate and undergraduate, for a provisional certificate. The Registrar's Office of the University will supply information concerning certificate requirements.

Undergraduate credit completed in this program will apply to provisional certificate but not on a master's degree; graduate credit required for the provisional certificate will apply on master's degree but not on a permanent certificate.

Programs Leading to a Specialist's Degree

- Administration (for Principals, Supervisors, Business Managers, and other administrators)
- Classroom Teaching
- Guidance and Counseling
- Industrial Education
- Physical Education
- Reading
- Special Education
- Elementary Education
- Other Areas (under study)

The degree Specialist in Arts shall be granted for programs with majors in Education and Special Education. The degree Specialist in Science shall be granted for programs with majors in Physical Education.

ADDITIONAL GRADUATE PROGRAMS CONTEMPLATED

The Graduate Council is studying additional graduate programs leading to a master's degree and to the specialist's degree. If you have a special goal for graduate specialization, please address a letter of inquiry to the Dean of the Graduate School.

PROGRAM OF WORK

Graduate Advisory Committees in the several departments of the University are charged with the task of preparing for each student a required and suggested program of courses leading to an advanced degree. This is a "tailor-made" program and is dependent upon the student's undergraduate training and upon his professional goal.

CREDIT REQUIREMENTS

The minimum credit requirement for a master's degree is thirty hours. This minimum is sufficient, however, only if the student's undergraduate record is satisfactory as to grade level achieved and exhibits competency in the broad subject areas with which the graduate program is concerned.

A student who has completed twelve hours of graduate work, with at least six hours on the campus at Ypsilanti, and who has met any special restrictions imposed at the time of admission, may apply for admission to candidacy. The Graduate Council considers the initial twelve hours of graduate work as probationary and the granting of admission to candidacy as approval of the student for additional graduate courses.

It is possible to transfer 12 hours of graduate work taken at other institutions, provided the work is included on the required and suggested program of studies for the student. Final approval of transfer credit rests with the Graduate Council. Grades of B−, C+, C, and C− are not accepted for transfer credit.

COURSE LOADS

A student who is engaged in full-time teaching may elect a maximum of six hours of work during a semester. A student employed in a non-teaching position must raise the question of restriction on load of courses to be elected.

Fall and Spring Semesters

A student enrolled in eight hours or more of graduate work is considered a full-time student. The maximum course load is twelve hours. Students in a combined program of graduate and undergraduate courses, may secure approval from the Dean of the Graduate School to exceed this maximum.

Six-Week Summer Session

A student enrolled in four hours of graduate work is considered a full-time student. The maximum course load is six hours.

Post-Summer Sessions, Field Trips, Tours, and Institutes

The maximum credit which may be earned is one semester hour per week of attendance.

ELECTION OF GRADUATE COURSES BY SENIORS

A senior in good standing at Eastern Michigan University may elect graduate courses to be applied on the master's degree. Not more than 10 hours may be earned in such courses, and in general the work will be elected during the session at the close of which the bachelor's degree is to be awarded. Such credit may be applied toward only one degree and it may not be applied on a permanent certificate.

An in-service teacher who is within 15 hours of a bachelor's degree at Eastern Michigan University and who is unable to enroll in courses applicable on that degree may be admitted to graduate courses for graduate credit. The credit may be applied toward the master's degree only after the bachelor's degree is received. The six-year limitation applies from the date of first enrollment in a graduate course.
UNDERGRADUATE COURSES APPROVED FOR GRADUATE CREDIT

Graduate Advisers may approve undergraduate courses for graduate credit. Many courses numbered in the 300's and 400's have been approved; a list of approved courses is on file in the Graduate Office.

A maximum of three undergraduate courses may be approved for graduate credit. Certificate requirements and recognizable gaps in certain undergraduate subject matter areas usually constitute the reasons for granting such approval. A graduate student admitted to such undergraduate courses should normally expect to do additional work for graduate credit.

Only students with regular admission are given permission to enroll in undergraduate courses and receive graduate credit by completing additional work. A student who expects to transfer graduate credit to another institution may not be admitted to such courses.

GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIPS AND TEACHING FELLOWSHIPS

Several graduate assistantships and teaching fellowships are available each year. Stipends vary with the work assigned, ranging from $600 to $3300 per academic year. In some cases, the course load of a graduate assistant may be restricted to 8 or 10 hours of graduate credit. All assistantships require 10 or more hours of work per week under the direct supervision of a member of the faculty.

From time to time graduate assistantships will be available for the summer session. The stipend will range from $60 - $90 per week.

Quality of undergraduate and graduate credits, the possession of a teacher's certificate or its equivalent, and breadth of training will be among the factors considered in the granting of assistantships.

For additional information a student should write to the Head of the Department in which he expects to elect a major.

STANDARDS AND POLICIES

The Academic Year

The academic year is divided into two semesters and one summer term consisting of several sessions, one of six weeks, one of eight weeks, and three of two weeks. Students may enroll at the opening of any semester or summer term. The calendar is printed on page two of this catalog.

Credits

The unit of work and of credit is the "semester hour." A semester hour is the credit granted in a course meeting once a week for fifteen or more weeks.

Unless otherwise noted, all graduate courses carry two semester hours of credit.

Grades

The grades used in the Graduate School of the University are listed below together with their grade point values.

Approval for graduation and for candidacy require a grade-point average of 5.0 or B.

Application for Graduation

A candidate for graduation must make application for a diploma at the time of registration for the session at the close of which he expects to receive the master's degree. Application forms are available in the Graduate Office.

A candidate for graduation should check with the Placement Office to make certain that all placement forms have been completed. Completion of a personnel folder in the Placement Office is one of the requirements for graduation.

A candidate for a certificate should check with the office of the Dean of Records and Teachers Certification to make certain that all requirements and application forms have been completed.

Financial Obligations

A student is eligible for registration or for graduation only after financial obligations with the University have been met. Reports of grades, transcripts of credits, or other statements of record will be withheld should the student be in arrears at the close of any session.

Campus Credit

For a master's degree, at least 6 hours of credit must be earned on the campus at Ypsilanti or in travel-study tours sponsored by Eastern Michigan University. For a specialist's degree, at least 15 hours of credit must be earned on the campus at Ypsilanti. This requirement may be met by attendance in afternoon and evening classes during the year or in classes of a summer session.

Withdrawing from Classes

During the first eight weeks of a semester, a student may initiate withdrawal from one or more graduate classes in the Graduate Office. During this period a "W" is assigned when justifiable reasons are presented; otherwise, an "E" is assigned.
Beginning with the ninth week of a semester, it is not possible for a student to withdraw from a class with a "W" unless there are extenuating circumstances. Such proof should be presented to the Dean of the Graduate School for validation.

Removal of "Incompletes"

An "incomplete" should be removed by a student within four weeks from the beginning of the next session in which he is enrolled, but not later than one year after the incomplete was received.

Time Limitation

All requirements for advanced degrees must be completed within six years from the time of first enrollment in a graduate course at this institution or elsewhere.

Research Paper

Graduate students are encouraged to write a research paper. For many, 592 Research Techniques affords opportunities to acquire basic research skills; for others, 597, 8, 9, 697, 8, 9 Independent Studies may supply an approach to research.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE and LITERATURE

The colossal enterprise of education in our time and country has created a growing demand for teachers possessed of the depth of knowledge and insight attainable only through protracted study of their subject matter. The degree Master of Arts in Literature is offered primarily for teachers of English, present and prospective. Many of our courses, however, interest other graduate students, who often constitute half or more of our class enrollments.

Requirements for the degree, in addition to the general Graduate School requirements set forth in the early pages of this catalog, include the following: (A) for admission to the program, at least 15 semester hours undergraduate literature; (B) for admission to candidacy for the degree, at least 12 semester hours graduate literature, grades averaging B or better; (C) for the degree, a minimum of 30 semester hours graduate work (usually 24 hours literature, 6 hours collateral studies) with grades averaging B or better; (D) a grand total of literary studies, graduate and undergraduate combined, totaling at least 48 semester hours and including one course in history of the English language, and minimal of two courses each in: English literature prior to 1744, English literature after 1744, American literature, and electives in literature as approved by the departmental committee on graduate studies.

Specific minimum requirements point to the importance of balanced distribution of courses; yet there is flexibility enough for individual programs accordant with the student's particular needs.

A master's thesis is not required. Papers assigned in course work provide ample opportunities to demonstrate scholarly competence. Reading knowledge of foreign languages is not at present required but is highly desirable, especially for students who think of working eventually toward a Ph.D. degree.

A substantial number of those who have attained our M.A.(LIT.) are now teaching English in junior colleges and community colleges—some in universities. Opportunities of this kind are increasing.

Graduate offerings of the Department of English Language and Literature, as set forth in immediately following pages of this catalog, include not only those which qualify the student for the M.A.(LIT.) but also some courses which serve other purposes and do not count toward that degree.

Professor N. S. Maddox, Chairman of the Committee on Graduate Studies, Department of English, is chief adviser for this program, assisted by Professor F. E. Haun, Secretary of the Committee, and from time to time by other committee members. Office hours of advisers are posted, 245 Pierce Hall.

Students are invited to seek needed information or counsel at any time, and are urged to plan each semester's schedule early.
I. General Courses

LIT 500-503 are courses not open to undergraduate students and, effective June 15, 1965, and thereafter, not credited toward an M.A. in Literature. Such courses are offered for the benefit of graduate students specializing in departments other than English who wish to take collateral or cognate work in the Department of English. GEOGRAPHY AND GEOLOGY

There is an acute shortage of professional geographers today. Students with a graduate degree in geography have a great number of opportunities for teaching careers at the college, junior college, secondary and elementary level. Geographers are in great demand for positions with federal, state, and local government agencies, working in urban and regional planning, analysis of foreign areas, resource management, soil and agriculture, transportation, cartography, climatology, military geography, and general economic geography. Many opportunities in private industry also exist for geographically trained persons in marketing research and industrial location.

The master's program in geography is tailor-made for each student to prepare him for professional work in the field and provide him with a program compatible with his interests. In general, programs are designed to either prepare students who wish to work towards a doctorate degree in geography; as a terminal degree for those who wish a career in professional geography, excluding teaching; or as a terminal degree for those who intend to teach at the elementary, secondary, junior college and college level and desire to increase their proficiency in the field of geography.

Normally, a minimum of thirty semester hours, including the thesis, will be required for a Master's degree. Twenty-two to twenty-four hours must be graduate courses in geography; the remaining hours will be taken in a cognate field, or fields.

All graduate students are required to write a thesis as part of the master's program. The subject of the thesis is determined by the student and his advisers to provide an opportunity for the student to work in his special field of interest.

Students desiring more information concerning the master's program in geography should contact Dr. Paul Buckholts, Departmental Graduate Adviser.

The Graduate Program in Music is devoted to expanding musician-ship and to making available the most recent developments in the materials and techniques of music teaching at all levels.

A minimum of thirty hours of credit is required for the degree; twenty-two are earned in the music department, six in other departments, and two in a Master's degree project or recital. Students are encouraged to cover a wide spectrum of musical interests, including theory, composition, applied music, music literature, conducting, and methods courses, all of which are seen as contributing to the skill of the musician and teacher.

Concentration in one of the above areas is elected by the student after having successfully completed six credit hours in the Music Department, and by applying for acceptance in the area of his choice. Admission to such concentration comprises formal acceptance for work toward a degree in the Music Department.

The Music Department is currently in the process of expanding its interactions with Michigan schools, and is developing new programs for the Master's and Specialist degrees in Music. It is already a member of the Institute for Music in Contemporary Education.

For further information, apply to the Director of Graduate Studies in Music.

Admission to a program leading to the degree Master of Arts in Music, requires a prior instrumental or vocal audition. Placement examinations in conducting, music literature and history, music theory, and piano proficiency are given for all students whose undergraduate degrees were earned at other institutions or at Eastern Michigan University before 1960. All entering students should consult the Chairman of the Department of Music about times for audition and placement examinations well in advance of their intended registration.

GUIDANCE, COUNSELING, AND PERSONNEL WORK

Graduate study in Guidance, Counseling, and Personnel Work at Eastern Michigan University is primarily concerned with the professional preparation of people who intend to become counselors or other personnel workers in elementary schools, secondary schools, colleges, or in related social agencies. Introductory courses in this area also provide the classroom teacher, supervisor, and administrator with an understanding of guidance and personnel programs, and with skills that will enable them better to fulfill their own guidance role.

These programs also offer counseling and related skills to a variety of other persons whose professional roles require that they assist people in making more effective decisions and adjustments in their lives.

The Master's degree is generally regarded as preparation for entry level work in this field. The elementary or secondary school counselor with this degree can qualify for a position as counselor, and may be certified in most states which have special certification for school counselors. Candidates interested in college student personnel work at this level may be eligible for positions as Counselor in a Community College, Head Resident, Assistant Dean of Students, Admissions Counselor, or similar positions.

The program consists of three major segments (1) foundation courses as required of all Master of Arts degrees in education candidates, 8 sem. hrs., (2) a major sequence in Guidance and Counseling, 14-16 sem. hrs., and (3) cognate courses to be selected from the behavioral sciences with approval of an adviser. The major sequence includes the following:

- G&C 500 Guidance
- G&C 510 The Counseling Process
- G&C 520 Stand. Group Testing
- G&C 540 Group Guidance
- G&C 680 Counseling Practicum I
- G&C 696 Seminar in G&C

Additional courses from G&C offerings to complete 14-16 sem. hrs. are to be selected with the approval of an adviser.

Students planning to enter counseling in a public school must present a valid teaching certificate or plan to earn one before completing the degree. Students who plan to counsel in other than public schools will make appropriate adjustments in their programs, with the approval of an adviser.

Programs leading to the Specialist's degree in this field are currently being developed and should be available in the 1968-69 academic year.

For information, students should contact Dr. Winton Kloosterman, G&C Advising Chairman, or Dr. James Weeks, G&C Program Chairman, 966 Washtenaw Avenue.

SPECIAL EDUCATION AND OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY

The Graduate School at Eastern Michigan University offers a program in Special Education leading to a Master's degree and a Specialist's degree. The degree program is pursued through a number of avenues in addition to regular course work. There are opportunities to do field studies, work shops, independent studies, internships and research projects.

The primary emphasis of the Master's degree program is in developing proficiency in Classroom Teaching and a better understanding of the individualized programs necessary for successful educational experiences for the exceptional child.

Master's degree students wishing to qualify for teaching in an area of special education; (i.e., mentally retarded, orthopedically handicapped, deaf and hard of hearing, emotionally disturbed, visually handicapped, occupational therapy or speech correction) may pursue a certification program on the graduate level. Those who have obtained certification on an undergraduate level would be encouraged to follow a program in advanced studies to further their understanding of a particular field of specialization, or to obtain additional knowledge in one or more areas of exceptionality.

The minimum degree requirement does not guarantee certification, and the meeting of certification standards is not to be construed as the completion of the University special education equivalents. Graduate programs are planned on an individual basis, and students should seek the advice of department counselors when necessary.

The Specialist's program is open to qualified people who have met certification standards, have teaching experience, and possess a Master's degree. Three general areas are emphasized at this level of study: administration, supervision and curriculum development, and classroom teaching. Curricular requirements include a general core of theoretical and specialized courses, seminars, independent studies, and an internship in the field of interest and specialty.

In addition to the more specific courses that are offered for special education majors, the graduate program offers a number of general courses that are open to regular classroom teachers and other non-majors. These courses are designed to provide a student with better understanding of the child with problems who might be found in any classroom.

For further information, contact the Graduate Adviser, Department of Special Education, 483-6100, Ext. 2141.

The Graduate Program in Home Economics has been developed to fulfill a variety of needs for home economists in Michigan and surrounding states. Some participants enroll primarily to earn required certification credits, but the majority complete the degree.

The specific needs which are identified as basic to advanced study are:

(a) a general strengthening of all areas of home economics for secondary teachers who plan to continue their work in homemaking instruction

(b) an opportunity to select one or more areas for specialization in order that the student may prepare herself for teaching at the college and university level.

(c) a concentrated study in one or more areas of specialization in preparation for certain types of work in business, research, mass communications, or extension services

(d) continued study and experiences for the purposes of training specialists in teacher education in home economics

Master of Science or Master of Arts degrees may be earned in either General Home Economics or in a specialized area. Areas of specializations are grouped as follows:

(a) clothing, textiles and related arts

(b) family life and child development

(c) foods, nutrition and family health

(d) home management, equipment and housing

(e) home economics education

Since area of specialization requirements vary, the candidate has the option of selecting a graduate program leading to the degree of Master of Arts or Master of Science in Home Economics. All degree programs require a minimum of 30 hours. Of these, at least 24 semester hours are in the field of home economics (of which a minimum of 16 hours may be in a chosen area with the opportunity to select at least eight semester hours in other areas of home economics) with at least six semester hours selected from related courses outside the department of Home Economics. All programs of study include a four semester hour independent study (through HEC 697, 698, and 699) under the direction of the graduate committee.
