THE HOME COMING

In this issue are printed the names of all who graduated from the Normal in 1895, and the addresses as far as known. You are requested to read them carefully and send to the News any additional addresses that you may know, or correct any that may be wrong or incomplete. Thus you will do your share in preparing for the reunion and home coming in June.

INCREASE THE LOAN FUND

THE SENIOR LIFE CLASS ARE NOW PLANNING TO DO SO AS A MEMORIAL.

The senior life class has taken up the question of a suitable class memorial and it is very probable that the gift will take the form of a substantial addition to the students' loan fund. At the class meeting on Tuesday sentiment was very strong in favor of this course, the general feeling being that the loan fund movement should be helped as much as possible. The committee who have the matter under consideration consists of Martin B. Travis, Eva Cole and Estella Angell. The committee is unanimously in favor of the fund memorial. The matter will probably be definitely settled at the next meeting.

The fund has now been in existence for less than a year and already amounts to a considerable sum. The class of '04 gave $125; the oratorical association, $100; the senior-junior girls from the proceeds of their meet last year, $25; Mrs. Walterhouse, $100; the Sappho club, $55; the Ypsilanti Y. W. C. A., $85.

NORMALS vs. ALBION

To-day the Normals play Albion on the Normal campus. It is probable the line-up will be the same as in last Saturday's game, with the exception that Hyames will go in the box on the start, leaving Smith at third with Monks, Upthegrove and McBain in the outfield. The coach has been practicing the team in hitting for the past few days, as so far no very great stickers have shown up. The game will be called at 2 o'clock.

On Wednesday afternoon the baseball team was photographed for the Aurora. Last year the whole squad was taken for the Aurora, but it was not found to be very satisfactory, so only a few men were picked by Coach Cole and Manager Jensen for this year's picture.

MEETING OF STATE SUPERINTENDENTS

The thirty-second annual meeting of the Michigan Association of School Superintendents will be held at Lansing May 4-5 in the Hotel Downey parlors. The following program will be presented: Thursday evening—"Essentials in School Administration," President A. Gaylord Slocum, Kalamazoo College, formerly superintendent of schools in New York. Friday morning—"The Superintendent," (a) "Relation to Board of Education," Prof. Hoyt, Ypsilanti; (b) "Relation to Teachers," Supt. W. H. Elson, Grand Rapids; (c) "Relation to People," Supt. Geo. W. Loomis, Mt. Pleasant; general discussion. Friday afternoon—"How to Judge a School...What is an Efficient Teacher?" Prof. C. T. Grawn, Mt. Pleasant; "Teachers' Meetings...Aim: How to Secure Desired Results," Supt. W. G. Coburn, Battle Creek; general discussion. The following "Round Table Topics" will be discussed: 1. What should be the attitude of the Public Schools toward the defective children in our state? 2. Teachers' Wages—the superintendent's attitude toward the problem—how improve conditions? 3. How far should local conditions determine a course of study—should not the course of study for high schools reported by the committee become uniform? 4. Free text books—is the plan all that has been claimed for it?

The printed programs which have been sent out bear the friendly greeting: "Come prepared to give as well as to get. This is your meeting.

The officers of the association are: President, Supt. E. M. McElroy, Three Rivers; secretary-treasurer, Supt. E. N. Pitkin, Belding.

Tonight the Girls' star basket ball team plays the team from the Jackson Y. W. C. A., for the benefit of the athletic association. Tickets for the game were placed on sale Wednesday and soon sold.
THE JAP ORATOR.

Kivo Sna Inui, the lap student orator of the U. of M., gave his oration on "The Sick Man of Asia and His Doctors" in chapel Wednesday morning. Both Mr. Inui and his talk were very interesting. Mr. Inui recently gave this oration in a very close oratorical contest with six other college men and gained second place. President Jones was one of the judges of the contest and said that his was the only real oration given.

Of the sick man and his doctor he said that China is "sick" indeed, and for two reasons. Lack of organization in government, communication, or even language, (2) and because she is bound hand and foot with superstition and tradition. Instead of the strong centralized government needed to govern a country larger than all Europe and supporting four hundred million people, over against Europe's two hundred and fifty millions, China has a strict feudal government; the inhabitants of one district cannot understand the language of their near neighbors; the United States has the telegraph, the telephone, a perfect postal system, the great railroad lines, the Northern, Central and Southern Pacific, binding its boundaries together to say nothing of the thousands of miles of other immense and minor railroads, traversing its length and breadth, while a Chinese letter may never reach its destination, and the Pacific coast has the telegraph, and the great resources of coal and iron he useless because there are no means of transporting them. Worse than this is the tradition and superstition which places the Chineseman from emperor to peasant, in the hands and at the mercy of demagogues and fortune-tellers, making it impossible to civilize him until he is rescued from their clutches. China is indeed "sick."

Europe and partially Russia has been saying "since China is sick, let us hasten to kill her and divide the profits." But Europe can not kill her, nor will she die.

The cure of China's illness lies with Almighty God. Through his misincarnation it was that America awakened Japan and through them, by overthrowing the autocrats and their power, through subjugation, she must make an opening for her civilization. Let Japan and America join forces in Christianizing and civilizing the "Sick Man of Asia."

Mr. Edward L. O’Driscoll, who is devoting some time to the study of sociological problems, recently defined theocratic government as “good in theory and quite practical.”

The Aurora Prize Poem.

This world is full of sorrow,
Then let us all be sad;
There’s trouble all around us.
Why then should we be glad?

A letter was delivered to Prof. Roberts last week addressed: “Prof. D. H. Roberts, Central Normal School, Mich.” The letter said: “Your Normal turns out the best teachers we have ever had.”

A Suspicious Character.

“I tell you how it was,” said the landlord of the tavern at Pollyville, which as everybody knows is in Arkansas: “He said he was from Ypsilanti, Michigan (spelled it out for him) and they just hastily took and rid him out of town on a rail.”

“How, great times! what occasion was there for treating him so?” asked the tourist in surprise.

“Aw, you see, they didn’t believe no such a daddogged word as that was the name of any place on earth—they just termed it was part of an Ananias. They didn’t like a stranger to start in advin’ so early in the game.”—Clipped.

Life’s Tragedy.

They met by chance,
They never met before;
They only met that once,
And she was sin unit then.
They never met again,
Don’t want to I know;
They only met that once,
A freight train and a cow.

—Crimson.

She: “But it’s the man with the head that gets the pull.”

Guy Smith has a new spring suit.

“Those who are despairing because teaching doesn’t pay may take heart again by reading the following letter which an honest officer last week wrote to the “Hedonister Ypsilanti normal school.”

LOST ON ERRORS
BUT SHOWED THAT THEY COULD PLAY IF THEY HAD TO.

The Normal baseball team was defeated by Detroit College on the D. A. C. grounds in Detroit last Saturday forenoon, by a score of 10 to 5. The game was the first of the season for both teams and was played under the most disagreeable conditions, as it snowed a portion of the time and the players were handicapped by a cold, sharp north wind.

Lack of practice was chiefly responsible for the defeat, though, after the third inning the Normals played fast ball, only one man crossing the plate after that time. The seven runs in the first two innings were due to errors on the part of Wood, Walsh and O'Brien, Wood being the chief offender.

Wood opened in the box for the Normals, but was succeeded in the third by Hyames; Smith going to third, Monks to left field and McBain to right.

The Game in Detail.

The summary of the game is as follows: Reese received base on balls and stole second. McCarthy fanned. Reese scored on Smith's two-bagger to right. Hyames out to D. Sullivan. Walsh struck out. One run.

J. Sullivan received his base on balls; Ward hit to Wood, Sullivan scoring on Wood's wild throw to first. Parker hit to pitcher, Ward scoring; Klick thrown out at first, Parker scoring. Dillon received base on balls; Vismara out to Reese. Dillon stole second and thrown out there.—Three runs.

Upthegrove out to Ward. Monks hit to D. Sullivan; O'Brien drew base on balls; Wood fanned; Reese out to Ward. No runs.

Tazey drew his base and scored on wild throw of Wood, Linsky getting first; O. Sullivan struck out; Linsky scoring on J. Sullivan's safety; Ward hit to Wood, scoring Sullivan. Parker reached first on Walsh's wild throw to first, and second on Klick's hit to McCarthy; Wood fanned Dillon. Four runs.

Third—McCarthy out to D. Sullivan; Smith fouled out; Hyames hit for two bases but died on third when Walsh was thrown out at first. No runs.

Hyames goes in. Vismara hit to Hyames; Tazey flew out to Upthegrove, Linsky hit to Smith, scoring Vismara; Linskey scored on Sullivan's hit to Reese, which ended the run getting for five runs.
innings: J. Sullivan going out to Smith and Ward fanning—2 runs.

Fifth—Upthegrove out to second; Moms out to third; Klick hit to Wadd, and stayed there. Hynes striking out Dillon and Vassar. No runs.

Sixth—McBain hit to J. Sullivan; Reese made a two-bagger. McCarthy struck out; McBain scored on Smith's fly to deep center and Reese came in by Hynes sacrifice. Walsh singling out to second—2 runs.

Tazey and Linskey both drew three strikes; D. Sullivan hit safely to Hynes, but side went out on J. Sullivan's hit to Reese. No runs.

Sixth—Upthegrove hit to second; Moms out to second; O'Brien fanned out. McBain hit to Smith, and scoring Upthegrove and Moms. McBain was thrown out at third and Reese flew out to left—2 runs.

Ward went out to McCarthy, Parker to Hynes, and Klick to McCarthy. No runs.

Seventh—McCarthy fanned; Stritch out to J. Sullivan and Hynes struck out. No runs.

Dillon struck out; Vassar went out to Hynes; Tazey received his base on balls and Linskey went out to Reese. No runs.

Eighth—Waltz went out to Sullivan, Upthegrove to Mallon and Moms to Dillon. No runs.

J. Sullivan hit to Reese, and was thrown out at third; D. Sullivan hit to Reese. Ward went out to Hynes and Sullivan scored on Parker's three-bagger; Klick flew out to Moms—1 run.

Ninth—O'Brien struck out; McBain went out to Parker. Reese drove to basest Smith hit by pitcher; Hynes flew out to center. No runs.

ALUMNI

Verna I. Atkins, 04, University, '04, is now special mathematics teacher in Elgin, Illinois.

Laura Thompson, '02, is working in the public library in Grand Rapids.

Bernice M. DeBlassie, 04, is teacher of English in the Flintshire high school and Anna L. Gambell, '04, is principal.

Anna Sherrard, '04, who has been teaching in Re-Hall, has been compelled to resign and return to her home in Homer because of ill health.

C. R. Jordan, '04, former business manager of the News, has been re-elected as superintendent at Monroe for next year at an increase of salary.

Carrie A. Strang, '00, who is teaching a second year at Marquette, Wis., has been suffering from an attack of typhoid fever, but is now convalescent and has returned to Ypsilanti.

R. W. Sprinkle, '03, is superintendent of the Sidell (III.) high school, and through his efforts an excellent biological laboratory has been instituted there.

Katherine B. Green, '00, taught in the eighth grade of the Colfax schools, Washington, last year, and this year teaching at Mulan, Idaho, the center of the greatest silver lead mining region in the world.

Superintendent E. D. Washburn, '04, and entire corps of teachers have been asked to remain at Decker for another year, the superintendent at an increase of salary. The graduating class this year numbers ten.

L. A. Butler, '00, is completing his third year as superintendent of the Central Lake high school. He has eight teachers under him and the work of the school is in a prosperous condition. Marie Maroney, '05, is teaching in the fourth and fifth grades there.
Lemley P. Whitcomb, '99, who is studying mechanical engineering at the University, has been elected to a professorship in the Southwestern Normal School at Weatherford, Oklahoma territory, where he will teach manual training, mechanical drawing and athletics. Mr. Whitcomb was director in the Normal gymnasium here several years ago, and also taught shop work, athletics and mechanical drawing in the Upper Alton (Illinois) Military academy for several years. Austin E. Wilber, '98, formerly superintendent at Vassar, Michigan, is vice-principal and professor of pedagogy in this institution, and Mary Tuttle, '00, is the primary critic teacher.

Will Vandervoort, a former Normalite, is now a member of a large firm at Moline, Illinois, which has a large plant for the manufacture of gas engines and automobiles, and is doing a good business, especially on the Pacific slope. Mr. Vandervoort graduated from M. A. C., became instructor there, later took a post-graduate course at Cornell University and then taught ten years as professor of mechanical engineering in the University of Illinois.

H. M. Cook, '94, writes the News an interesting letter from Colfax, Washington, where he is superintendent of city schools. Colfax is a flourishing city in the centre of the famous Palouse region, and is the county seat of the greatest wheat producing county in the world, where the value of land has increased in the last ten years from a price of $6 to $40 per acre. The country there is very hilly and the wheat is grown on the tops of the hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook spent last summer at the state University of Washington. Mrs. Cook was Louise G. Lockwood, '00, and was teacher of English in the Ithaca high school, Michigan, precedent to her marriage to Mr. Cook in August, '03. There are twenty-one teachers in Colfax and an enrollment of nine hundred pupils in the schools. Mr. Cook states that nothing except a visit to friends in Michigan would induce him to return here.

M. K. Snyder, '99, was principal in the high school, but resigned two years ago at the time of Mr. Cook’s entrance in the schools, to take the position of deputy county superintendent of schools. He was one of the most capable, progressive and popular teachers ever employed in the Colfax schools. Leonora H. Pilcher, '02, who taught for the two previous years at Cadillac, is this year teaching in the second grade, Colfax.

On account of Governor Warner's decree that Arbor day be observed on Friday, April 28, chapel exercises will be held next week on Friday instead of Wednesday, and music and an address appropriate to the occasion will be given. The students will be invited to observe the planting of the tree given by the Civic Improvement society of this city. The following week the chapel exercises will be in charge of the children of the training school, and the Wednesday following that, Rabbi Franklin, of Detroit, who disappointed the students by not being able to appear several weeks ago, will speak.
LISTER—HUTTON.

A very quiet wedding, which came as a surprise to many friends of both bride and groom in this city, occurred at the home of the bride's brother-in-law, Dr. W. J. Wilson, on Perry avenue, Detroit, Wednesday, April 19, when Miss Sadie M. Hutton was married to Mr. Wm. N. Lister, of this city. The ceremony was performed by Dr. J. C. Philpott, of the First United Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Lister are well known in this city; Mr. Lister having lived in Ypsilanti the greater portion of his life, graduating from the high school in '87, and from the Normal in '90, and occupying the position of postmaster here for the past year.

Mrs. Lister was a student at the Normal, graduating in '90, and it was here that the friendship began which culminated in their marriage. For the past eight years, Mrs. Lister has been a teacher in the Duffield school in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Lister will be at home after June 15 at 21 Adams street, and an unusually large circle of friends in this city and in the surrounding country join the News in extending their congratulations.

ARTISTS’ RECITAL.

The fourth artist's recital of the year, which was postponed some time ago, was given in the Normal hall last night, under the direction of the Conservatory. Prof. Harri Ern, the well known violinist of Detroit, and Mr. William Davin, a popular teacher of that city, assisted by Miss Minnie Davis, of Ann Arbor, as accompanist rendered this excellent program: Concerto, first movement, D minor, Spohr—Mr. Ern; "Where'er You Walk" ("Tenebrae")—Dandel; "The giorno souche Nino," Pergolese; "Adelaide," Beethoven—Mr. Davin; "Love Song," Vieuxtemps; "Corrente," Eiller; "Hungarian Dance," Brahms-Joachim—Mr. Ern; "Unis dasi plusulante enfance" ("Iphigenie"), Stuck; "Hilda, Vierse au pale Souvire" ("Sigrur"), Peyer—Mr. Davin; "Casting and Rada Capriccioso," St. Sanais—Mr. Ern; "In the Dawn," Elgar; "A Song of Absence and Longing" (Indian), Burton; "Dear Love, When Thine Arms," Chadwick; "O Come With Me in the Summer Night," Van der Stucken—Mr. Davin.

The following number of engagements made by Normal professors as special speakers at commencement exercises testifies to their popularity: Prof. D. 11, Roberts—Hersey, June 9; Flat Rock, June 16; Prof. Hoyt—Holmes, June 3; New Baltimore, June 9; Newberry, June 16; Belmont, June 22; Prof. S. B. Laird—Schoolcraft, June 9; Eisle, June 15; Red City, June 16; Marine City, June 21; Harbor Beach, June 22; Port Hope, June 23; Prof. F. A. Barbour, York, May 26; Dexter, June 9; Prof. R. C. Ford, Edenville, June 1. Prof. Barbour and Ford have declined all except those which come very early, as they both sail for Europe early in June.

AURORA PRIZES AWARDED.

The prizes offered by the Aurora for the best story, poem, and fable have been awarded, the members of the literary faculty acting as judges. The prize in each case consisted of a complete set of Roosevelt's works.

The story was written by Luella Hummel, '95; the poem by Albert L. Depew, conservatory, and the fable by Jeannette Dean, '96.

Easter Hats (?)

A hat-trimming contest furnished very unique entertainment for a party of gentlemen friends assembled for a social time at the home of Prof. F. A. Barbour, Friday evening, April 18. The gentleman contested in trimming the most artistic piece of headgear in the shortest time. Rev. A. G. Beach was the winner of the first prize, due undoubtedly to his familiarity with all kinds of headgear which he faces on Sunday. Prof. Barbour won the second prize.

Mrs. Andrew J. Murray.

The news of the death of Mrs. Andrew J. Murray, at Orlando, Florida, on April 1, came as a shock and deep grief to her many friends in this city and the students who formerly knew her. Mrs. Murray was sixty-five years of age and a life long resident of Ypsilanti. She has been in poor health for some time and last September went to Florida in hopes of regaining her strength. She is survived by her husband and five children, all of whom have been well known in the Normal: Benjamin L. Murray, a graduate of the U. of M. and now a pharmacist in New York City; A. Jay Murray, '91, the second business manager and editor of the Normal News, formerly superintendent at the Soo, and now of Cortland, N. Y.; Milledred N. Murray, '96, of Kansas City, Mo.; Dr. Ellen B. Murray, '95, of Ypsilanti, medical examiner for the Normal girls; and Edwin S. Murray, '90, of this city, a student at the University.

Mrs. Murray was a woman of beautiful personality and had a deep influence over those with whom she came in contact, so that the memories of hours spent in her hospitable home will be recalled by many.

Amy Whalian.

The many friends of Amy Whalian were deeply grieved at the news of her sudden death at her home in Chelsea, Thursday, April 13. She was a student at the Normal two years ago and graduated in June, expecting to accept a position, but on account of rapidly failing health was obliged to remain at home, where she died of quick consumption. Miss Whalian taught in the seventh grade of the training school last quarter, and her funeral at Chelsea was attended by Prof. Roberts, Miss Mattie Martin and several of the student teachers who were associated with her in the grade.

TRAINING SCHOOL.

The Real A White club, of the third grade gave an afternoon tea on Tuesday, April 11, in the rooms of the domestic science department. The senior third grade student teachers of the winter quarter, with Miss McEwenn entertained the guests being the seniors who are entering on their teaching work in the grade this quarter, President Jones, Prof. and Miss Roberts and the special teachers in the training school. The room was effectively decorated in white and gold, the center colors, and the table brilliant in daisies, white tulips and candle light. Miss Sweet and Miss Peacek served at the tea table and the guests were conscious that the graces of hospitality were growing to be more and more among the pedagogical virtues.
