THE GREAT FINAL DEBATE
WILL TAKE PLACE TONIGHT

THE QUESTION.
RESOLVED, "That labor unions are beneficial to the interests of the United States."

The conflict is on! Tonight culminates the great struggle that has been in progress for many weeks, for supremacy in debate among the literary societies and debating clubs. It portends a battle royal. It will be the most hotly contested debate ever held at the Normal. Every man is in to win and no one will come off victor without a supreme effort.

The fight for the Brabb cup is between the Crescents and Lincolns, three of the six contestants being Crescent men and two Lincoln. The three chosen in this contest will meet the debating team from M. A. C.

The various clubs and societies have been making extensive preparations for some time for the coming of this event. Seats have been reserved for each club and society which will be present in a body. Some of the demonstrations will be very unique and excitement and enthusiasm promise to reach a high mark.

Prof. Trueblood, of the department of Elocution and Oratory at the University of Michigan will preside, and the following competent men have been secured to act as judges: Martin Cavenaugh, president of the Ann Arbor board of education and prominent attorney; Prosecuting Attorney Shields of Howell, a graduate of the University, one of its former giants of the gridiron and a man noted for eloquence; and E. A. Birkey, a senior law at the University of Michigan and winner of first place on the university's debating team for this year.

HOW THE CUP WILL BE WON.

The points, as decided on by the oratorical board, give to the man winning first place, 17; second place, 15; third place, 13; fourth place, 10; fifth place, 7; and sixth place, 4. The contestants have cast their points to the Crescent literary society and the Lincoln debating club, Reinhold and Herald to the latter, and Pittenger, Schoolcraft.

Every seat in Normal Hall should be filled. The inspiration of numbers will help every speaker to do his best. See that your place is filled by yourself.
and Reed to the former; Lathees being independent. Should the Crescentes win first, third and last places they would win the cup. But should the Lincoln's win first and fourth places and Lathees, an independent, second place, the cup would again fall to the Lincoln's. If either Crescentes or Lincoln's win the first two places they are sure of the prize. The one independent contestant may, by winning one of the first places, decide the combination which wins the cup.

THE ORDER OF SPEAKING.

The following is the order in which the debaters will appear, each speaker being allowed ten minutes and four minutes for constructive and rebuttal argument, respectively.

Constructive Argument.

AFFIRMATIVE.
Robert Reinhold, first.
Benjamin Pittenger, third.
J. A. Reed, fifth.

NEGATIVE.
Roy Herald, second.
Maurice Lathees, fourth.
Earl Schoofraft, sixth.

Rebuttal Argument.

NEGATIVE.

Robert Reinhold, second.
Benjamin Pittenger, fourth.
J. A. Reed, sixth.

THE PRIZES.

The first prize carries with it a gold medal and a set of Reed's Modern English, published by John L. Morris & Co., of Philadelphia. The books are ten beautifully bound volumes constituting a library of all that is best in modern oratory. The editor, the late Thomas A. Reed, had unequalled opportunity for coming close to the men who have made modern history, and has gathered the best from a wide field of after-dinner speeches, lectures, addresses, repartee and story. The books contain selected speeches from Gladstone, Cheate, Gladstone, Gough, Gough, McKinley, Bryan, Roosevelt and a host of others, and both in the literary and historical sense are a most valuable addition to a man's library.

The second prize is thirteen volumes of the American Statesmen Series published by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. This is the recognized authority upon the lives of the public men of America, and is a most acceptable prize to any patriotic American.

The third prize is a beautifully bound volume of the Reference History edition of Websters International Dictionary, published by the Erie Publishing Co., of Toledo, Ohio. In addition to its value as a dictionary, which is the best-known authority in the United States, this work contains a reference history of great value to the busy man who has not access to a great library.

The prizes have been placed on exhibition in the corridor, where they will remain until after the great debate.

THE BRABB DEBATING CUP.

The cup presented by Mr. Brabb, a prominent jeweler of the city, to the Normal College Oratorical association is one of rare beauty in both design and finish, and the club which succeeds in winning it will have a trophy well worth its best efforts.

Of the very latest design, the cup stands about ten inches high, with a nearly equal measurement in width, including the dark polished stag handles. The polished silver base of plain tulip pattern supports a gold-lined urn whose French gray finish and applied floral edging denote the value of the present. Upon the urn in Old English lettering are the words, "The Biabi Inter-Society Debating Cup," below which is to be engraved the name of the club or society which succeeds in winning it. May this cup prove as great an incentive to the debating circles as has the one so handsomely contested for during the last eight years, which is now owned by the Lincoln club.

WILL SEE HAMLET

Prof. Harbour and the members of his Shakespeare class, accompanied by the members of the Shakespeare club, will go to Detroit Tuesday evening to see A. H. Sothern and Julia Malott in "Hamlet." For several years it has been the custom of Prof. and Mrs. Harbour to chair a party of students on one of the Shakespearean dramas given annually in Detroit, and this year the party have an especially rare treat in store for them. Prof. Harbour has secured sixty seats in one of the most desirable parts of the Detroit Opera House and has chartered a car for the exclusive use of his party. This is almost an ideal way of visiting the theater and one which gives pleasure to many students.

GI:LS' INDOOR MEET

The cup for which the senior and junior girls are to contend has been on exhibition at the gymnasium this week. The meet will take place in the gymnasium, March eighteenth. As the time draws nearer the enthusiasm increases and the meet promises to be one of decided contention.

The Men Who Debate

The Participants in Tonight's Contest are all experienced debaters.

Benj. Pittenger, Crescent.

Benj. Pittenger, '06, comes from Shelby, Oceana County. He graduated from the Shelby high school in 1911, and spent the succeeding two years in rural school teaching. He has had considerable previous experience in debating, having been a member of his high school team. He also holds four oratorical medals, and has delivered several public addresses in his home county. He is a member of the Webster club, and president of the Crescent society and a valuable member of the News staff. He enters the lists as representative of the Crescent society, having obtained his place upon the floats from the school at-large. Last week Mr. Pittenger won the diamond medal offered by the W. C. T. U. as the highest possible honor in the state oratorical contests held under their auspices. He has previously won the silver, gold and grand gold medals in these contests. There is little question about Mr. Pittenger's making the college team in tonight's contest, and if so, the Normal will find in him an able champion.

Maurice C. Lathers, Olympic.

Maurice C. Lathers, '07, of Ann Arbor, who represents the Olympic society, is a brother of Prof. Lathers of the Department of Oratory. He entered the sophomore class at the Normal last fall, after three years' work in the Ann Arbor high school. He is probably the first sophomore to make the finals, and it is certainly to be complimented upon his unusual ability. Although he has been in the Normal but a few months he has already secured an enviable place among the leading orators and debaters. He is a member of the Webster club and the Olympic society. Mr. Lathers has had considerable experience as an orator. Last year he won first prize in the state high school oratorical contest. During the preliminary inter-society oratorical contests at the beginning of the term he also won a place on the final oratorical contest, but withdrew in order to devote his time to debate.

Robert Reinhold, Lincoln.
Robert Reinhold, '04, was born in Saxony, Germany, but while still very young came with his parents to Reed City, Michigan. He graduated from the Flint high school in 1899, and taught the next three years in the rural schools. On entering the Normal in 1902 he joined the Lincoln club and the Atheneum society and soon became president of the German club. He was also treasurer and valedictorian of his senior class and is valedictorian of the present junior degree class. He is also at present manager of the Normal College News.

Mr. Reinhold's prominence as a debater is shown by the fact that he was a member of the team last year. He represents the Lincoln club in the finals tonight, entering from the interclub. His many friends are confident of his ability to make the team.

Earl Schoolcraft, Crescent.
Earl Schoolcraft, '06, the Crescent society's direct representative from the inter-society contest, hails from Kendlis, Van Buren county. After three years' work in the Goebel high school, and four years in rural teaching, he entered the Normal in 1903. His thinking and speaking qualities at once marked him as a successful debater, and the Webster club rushed him into the final line-up. Many offices of confidence and trust have been his, all of which he has creditably filled. He is now a member of both the Aurora board and the oratorical board, and is president of the Webster club. He won first place in the inter-society contest.

Roy Herald, Lincoln.
Roy Herald, '05, of South Lyon, a representative of the Lincoln club, was a member of the Normal debating team of last year. Perhaps no man is better known in the institution than Mr. Herald, and certainly there is none who enjoys more fully the confidence of his friends. In debate he is a straightforward thinker, has good command of language, and is possessed of an easy, free delivery most pleasing to his hearers. His ability and comparative standing are made evident by the fact that he won first honors in the interclub debate over contestants who were the winners of the succeeding contests, thus leading many to predict that he will win first place on the team.

He entered the Normal in 1902, after graduating from the South Lyon high school, and soon became prominent in oratorical and debating

THE SHOWMAN CUP.

Brief Record of the Prize That Has Done Much to Create Debating Sentiment

The Showman debating cup, long known in debating circles as "The Silver Cup," was presented to the Normal College oratorical association by Mr. Frank Showman, the Illinon street jeweler, in 1877. It was stipulated that it should be contested for each year and held until the next contest by the club or society making the strongest showing in the final debate from which the college team is chosen. In case any one organization should win it for three years in succession, it was to become a permanent trophy.

The cup was the center of interest for many years and many are the songs and yells that have been dedicated to it by the rival societies during the eight years that its possession was the coveted prize of many hard fought battles. The names of the successive owners are engraved on the cup. In '87 it was won by the Crescent; '88, Olympia; '89, Crescent; '90, Olympic. There the debating clubs entered the field and no society has held it since. In '91 it went to the Webster, and the next year, '92, it was won by the new Lincoln club and has been held by that organization ever since. Last year it became the Lincoln's permanent trophy.

To Mr. Showman is due a vote of thanks from the student and alumni members of the oratorical association for the gift which in years past has been the object and stimulus that has resulted in the present debating sentiment.

Baseball practice continues every Saturday afternoon and by the squad of men which turns out the outlook for a banner team does not grow dim as the time for the beginning of practice draws near.

FRENCH SCHOLARSHIP AWARDED.

Elizabeth Beal Steere, '06, of Ann Arbor, has been awarded the French scholarship prize of $25 for excellence in reading, writing and using French. This scholarship was established by the Hon. Peter White, of Marquette, the “Grand Old Man of Michigan.” The candidate must be a student of French in the institution and expect to go on with the study. The points considered in awarding the scholarship are general preparation and literary appreciation.

Dwight E. Brewster.

Dwight E. Brewster, '97, of Hudson, died recently of smallpox in Chicago, where he was a senior in the Chicago College of Dentistry. He was born on a farm in Hillsdale county March 16, 1876. After completing the district school he entered the Hudson high school. He graduated from the Normal in '97 and taught for several years at PlattvUle, which position he filled with notable success. Later he held a position in the Hudson savings bank before entering upon his professional studies in Chicago. Memorial services were held at Hudson, Sunday, February 12. Mr. Brewster was a young man above the ordinary in many respects and made many friends while at the Normal.

Normalite Won Diamond Medal.

Benjamin Pittenger won the diamond medal offered by the W. C. T. U. in its declamatory contest held in Detroit, February 23. To be eligible to compete for this medal, one must have previously won the silver, gold and grand gold medals. Mr. Pittenger won out over eight contestants, and is one of the men who debate this evening.

Loan Fund Increased.

The loan fund received an addition of $55 last week from the old "Sappho Club," a musical organization which went out of existence five years ago. It had left in its treasury, however, some funds which have been accumulating. At a meeting called for the purpose, it was decided to turn this money over to the loan fund established by the class of '04 for assisting worthy students to complete their work in the Normal. The fund now amounts to about $400 of which $200 has been loaned to students and the remainder is in the hands of the treasurer of the Normal College Scholarship and Loan Association, Prof. C. O. Hoyt.

Miss Florence Spaulding was entertained by some of the Kappa Psi girls last week. Saturday, Feb. 18, the sorority met with Hildie Mundwiler. The Kappa Psi sorority and friends greatly enjoyed a dancing party given at the Country Club, the 21st of the month. Mrs. Woodbridge, Miss Foster and Miss Towne chaperoned.

Last Wednesday afternoon the Kappa Psi Alpha fraternity gave a slumber party to several of their lady friends. After a ride about town, the crowd took possession of La Verne Brown's home, where a merry evening was spent with music and games. An "old fashioned" supper proved one of the many attractions.

Alpha Sigma Tau Party.

The annual dancing party of the Alpha Sigma Tau sorority was given in the gymnasium last Friday evening, Feb. 24th, the decorations for the occasion being mostly of a patriotic nature. Besides the overhead and balcony draperies of red, white and blue there was a George Washington corner.

Cushions and pillow cushions gave the sorority room a very pleasing and comfortable appearance, while the southeast corner, with its china dish and five o'clock tea bore a striking resemblance to a college room. The "dark corner" occupying the northeast corner of the room, proved a snug retreat for the members of the faculty. The office serving as a punch room was a perfect bower of smiles.

Music was furnished by Grousers Orchestra, of Ann Arbor. Among the out-of-town guests were Ruby Hazen, Bay City; Grace McDaniel, Leslie; Sue O'Connell, Jackson; Irene W. Ehr and Evelyn Wilkinson, Grand Rapids; Ruth Johnson, Howell; Belle Major and Grace Towne, Ann Arbor.

The eighth annual Michigan intercollegiate oratorical contest was held at Albion College chapel, Albion, last evening. Mace J. Andress represented the Normal College with his oration, "Gettysburg." At the time the News went to press late last night the result was not yet known. Last year F. B. McKay, of the Normal, won out at Adrian and represented Michigan at the interstate contest at Notre Dame. The interstate contest this year will be held at Monmouth, Ill., and the winner last night will represent the state. Guy C. Smith is president of the interstate association.

The orations last night in the order of speaking were as follows:

- The Pioneer of the Middle West: E. O. Gildart, Albion.
- Christianity and Social Unity: D. A. Johnson, Alma.
- Martin Luther: C. J. Wood, Hillsdale.
- Simon Bolivar: B. J. Bush, Hope.
- Oliver Cromwell: F. Fitzgerald, Kalamazoo.
- Luther and the Reformation: C. R. Tiebout, Olivet.
- A Duty as American Citizens: C. W. Obee, Adrian.

The evening, February 25, was one of the pleasantest events of the year.

The gymnasium was very daintily decorated with pink and white, pink being the fraternity color, and with red, white and blue in honor of Washington' birthday, it being the custom of the fraternity to give its annual banquet as near as possible to this holiday.

The table laid for fifty guests presented a most pleasing effect. American Beauty roses and carnations were used as favors, and the table was further adorned with smilax, beautiful bouquets of carnations, and other pleasing decorations. Music for the occasion was furnished by Wright's Orchestra and the Conservatory Ladies' Quartet. Robert Reinhold presided, introducing the toastmaster, Guy C. Smith. The following toasts were given: "Fraternal Relations," Dr. C. O. Hoyt; "Yankee Notions," B. E. Milliken, '04, Saginaw; "Our Guests, the Ladies," S. R. Wilson; "Beta Chapter," J. H. Hallock, Mt. Pleasant; "Behind the Veil," E. L. O'Brien; "George Washington," Benjamin Pittenger; "Universal Brotherhood," Pres. L. H. Jones.

Among the guests from out of town were: F.G. Withrow, '01, and I. N. Simmons, '03, and Miss Hayward, of Detroit; Wilbur Morris, '04, of Grosse Isle; J. H. Hallock, of Mt. Pleasant; Miss Morse, of Ann Arbor; Miss Florence Spalding, of Mulliken; and B. E. Milliken, '04, of Saginaw.

The guests of honor from the faculty were President Jones, Prof. and Mrs. D'Ooge, Prof. and Mrs. Roberts, Prof. and Mrs. Laird, Miss Walton, and Mrs. Hoyt.

A western teacher, instructing a class in composition, said: "Do not attempt any flight of fancy; be yourselves and write what is in you." The following day a bright pupil handed in the following: "We should not attempt any flights of fancy, rite what is in us. In me there is my stomach, lungs, heart, liver, two apples, one piece of minch pie, three sticks of candy, a hull lot of peanuts and my dinner."

ball, senior, E. L. O'Brien, Berrien Center; junior, Charlea Webster, Oxford; pole vault, senior, Charles Harriman, St. Louis; junior, Durnell Holmes, Durand; 10-yard dash, senior, E. A., Reese, Bloomingdale; junior, late Foster, Tekonsha; tug-of-war, senior, Roy St. Head, Milan; junior, Charles Walker, Plainfield. Walker is also the junior captain for the cock fight. By the men who are turning out to the semi-weekly practice, the contest looks to be the warmest one ever held between the classes. The basket ball and pole vault events are conceded to the seniors, but the other eight look to be a toss-up. There is some question as to who are juniors and seniors, but it has been decided to leave the matter with Miss Stewart at the general office to decide.

The Adrian basketball management protested the game won by the Normals in the gymnasium hiero by a score of 13 to 18, and referred the matter to A. G. Spaulding at New York City. A few days ago Adrian received a reply that their protest was altogether unfounded and was not accepted by the committee, who declared the game was won by the Normals.

The Normals defeated the Ann Arbor Y. M. C. A. basketball team by a score of 10 to 21 in a rather one-sided contest, the Normals being the superiors of their opponents at every stage of the game, though the Ann Arbor five did some pretty team work at the last end of the game, but the sport came too late and the game had been already won. The first game of the afternoon between the Normal reserves and the Central High School of Detroit, was one of the prettiest contests which has been seen in the gymnasium for some time. The first half ended with the score a tie, 13 to 13. In the second half, however, the high school five injected more nerve and vigor into their play and won the game by a score of 21 to 13. The inability of Evans to guard his man well, was probably the cause of the Reserves' defeat as his opponent threw eight of the baskets for the Detroit aggregation. The return game for the Normals with the Ann Arbor Y. M. C. A. will be played on the 10th of March at Ann Arbor. The success of the double-header on Washington's birthday has caused high hopes to be raised over the double-header to be played in the gymnasium this afternoon between the boys' and girls' teams from The Michigan School for the Deaf at Flint and the two star teams from this institution. The wire netting barriers were first put into use on the 22nd and proved a success and will be used at all games hereafter, as it allows a much larger seating capacity. Admission was charged to the game of a week ago and enough money was secured by Manager Champion to clear all expenses and leave $10 in the treasury.

"Nope," be answered.

"Didn't you forget to say your prayers?"

"Nope; didn't say 'em last night, an' nothing didn't happen to me. I ain't goin' to say 'em to-night, and if nothing don't happen I Ain't never goin' to say 'em."

The boy meditated a while on the problem and then gave the apple to his sister, saying, "Here, Jennie, you cut the apple."
