Getting to Know an Eagle: EMU Gymnast Carrina Lo Bello

The junior has competed in the last 20 meets for the Green and White

Lo Bello has been in the Eastern lineup throughout the 2014 campaign, and her scores have been used for the majority of the meets. The junior gymnast has recorded scores of 9.700 or higher in 11 routines thus far, including career-highs on vault and beam. Lo Bello recorded a personal-best 9.750 on beam versus Western Michigan, Feb. 15, before following that mark up with a new career-high 9.775 on vault, Feb. 26, at Air Force.

Dating back to last season, the Oshawa, Ontario native has competed in the last 20 meets for EMU. At the 2013 Eagle Invitational, Lo Bello tallied a career-high 9.800 on bars to finish runner-up on the apparatus. Along with being an important asset to the EMU gymnastics team, she has succeeded in the classroom as well, boasting a 3.10 GPA as a speech/language pathology major.

Lo Bello and the rest of the Eagles will compete in one last meet before hosting the Mid-American Conference Championships. The Eagles will head to Muncie, Ind. to face off against Ball State University in a Friday night dual, March 14. The battle of the birds will take place a 7 p.m. in Irving Gymnasium.
