EMU Soccer Getting to Know an Eagle: Hallee Kansman

Kansman is excited to return to the pitch after sitting out last season due to injury.

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) – Eight days ago, one of the greatest and most famous soccer teams in the world, Real Madrid C.F., took to Scicluna Field for a training session. Yesterday, Aug. 7, the Eastern Michigan University soccer team began training for the upcoming 2014 season. To get Eagles fans excited about the upcoming season, redshirt junior Hallee Kansman (Farmington Hills, Mich.-North Farmington) joins Eagle All-Access for the first EMU Soccer “Getting to Know an Eagle” of 2014.

Although she holds the academic standard of a senior, Kansman enters the 2014 campaign as a redshirt junior after sitting out last season due to injury. She is ready to return to provide support to the EMU backline, something she did the last time she donned the Green and White; the Farmington Hills, Mich. native played 13 games in 2012, making 10 starts. Kansman also saw action in six contests as a freshman.

The 2014 Eagles begin their season next week with a pair of exhibition matches at Scicluna Field. The defending Mid-American Conference regular season champions will square off against the University of Detroit-Mercy, Aug. 14, at 5 p.m. before hosting Butler University on Saturday, Aug. 16, with first touch scheduled for 4 p.m.
