EMU Women's Golf: Golf Sits in Second after Round One of Dolores Black Falcon Invite

Eastern Michigan University
Golf Sits in Second after Round One of Dolores Black Falcon Invite

Freshman Kelsey Murphy leads the Eagles after round one

4/12/2014 5:37:00 PM

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (EMUEagles.com) – The Eastern Michigan University women’s golf team sits in second-place after the first round of the Bowling Green Dolores Black Falcon Invitational on the par-72, 5,960-yard Stone Ridge Golf Club Saturday, April 12.

The Eagles trail Mid-American Conference foe Ball State University by just one stroke after the first round of play as the Green and White shot a 305. South Dakota State University rounds out the top three, shooting a 315 in the first round.

Freshman Kelsey Murphy (Plymouth, Mich.-Plymouth) led EMU with a 75 and is currently in fifth overall, while Sylvie Williams (Christchurch, New Zealand-Christchurch Girls School-Lincoln) shot a 76 in the first round and is in a tie for sixth overall after day one.

Senior Corey Crossan (London, Ontario, Canada-Mother Teresa Catholic Secondary School) and redshirt-sophomore Karyn Lee Ping (Brampton, Ontario, Canada-St. Augustine Secondary School) carded matching 77s in the first round of action to close out the day in a tie for ninth, while Lois Schoof (Amsterdam, Netherlands-Univ. of Amsterdam) rounded out the scoring for the Eagles with a 81, tying for 34th overall.
In individual play, Usanee Laopattananont (Bangplee, Thailand-Thai Christian School) carded an 89 and sits in a tie for 81st overall after the first round of the invitational.

The Green and White will resume action Sunday, April 13 with a shot gun start from the Stone Ridge Golf Club.