EMU Softball Set for Fall Play
The Eagles will play seven fall contests

8/18/2014 1:58:00 PM

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) -- The Eastern Michigan University softball team will play a seven-game fall schedule beginning Saturday, Sept. 13 with a doubleheader against Concordia University at Varsity Field. First pitch of game one is slated for 10 a.m.

Following the doubleheader against Concordia at Varsity Field, there will be a dinner at Aubree's for alumnae who graduated from 1981-1996 to honor former EMU Head Coach Connie Miner.

EMU will conclude its weekend with an alumnae contest Sunday, Sept. 14, in which all former players are invited to take on the Eagles in a game starting at noon. After the game, a picnic at Varsity Field will be held for all past and present student-athletes as well as their families.

The Green and White will hit the road for its final five contests of the fall season, taking on the University of Notre Dame and the University of Illinois-Chicago in South Bend, Ind. Sunday, Sept. 28. Eastern will then head to Columbus, Ohio for two games Saturday, Oct. 4. The Eagles will square up against Big Ten opponent Ohio State University before playing Division II Ohio Dominican University.

Eastern will wrap up its fall schedule Wednesday, Oct. 8 when it makes the short trek to Ann Arbor, Mich. to go up against the University of Michigan.

Head Coach Melissa Gentile and the 2015 Eagles will begin regular-season competition in February. Stay tuned to
